Death Toll In Lansing Hotel Fire Likely 59

Twenty-Four Bodies Recovered — Many Are Still Missing

CHARGE DELAY IN FIRE ALARM

Probe Reveals Claim Of Delay Of 15 To 20 Minutes In Sending Call

(International News Service)

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 13.—As 24 bodies were recovered, placing the official death toll estimate at 59, investigations of the tragic Kerns Hotel fire, today brought forth startling evidence to indicate that the alarm was fatally delayed.

The official estimate of 59 dead was made while PWA workmen and firemen continued their gruesome search of the ruins, and a deep sea diver sought the bodies of victims who leaped into Grand river to escape the flames.

Delay In Alarm

Deputy State Fire Marshal Edward W. Welsh revealed that his inquiry showed an apparent gap of 15 to 20 minutes between the time the fire was discovered and receipt of the first alarm.

Two conflicting accounts concerning sending of the alarm were current. I. J. Jones, night clerk, said he telephoned for firemen as soon as he received his first information that there was a fire in the building. Welsh said all evidence indicated this could not have been much later than 5 a. m.

Another witness, Andrew Thevenau, of Flint, said he ran from the flaming hotel all the way to a

An attractive pair o. 1935 Ohio license plates adorned an automobile parked along North Mill street, Pa Newc observed.

Pennsylvania license plates for motor vehicles for 1935 can be used on December 15, it was stated today by the State Highway patrol. The new plates have a blue background and gold figures. With 1934 about to pass out of the picture many motorists are sending daily for their new plates so they will not be compelled to garage their cars for lack of proper licenses January 1.

Pa Newc was informed of an intesting bit of New Castle history yesterday. Many years ago a stone building occupied the corner of Washington and Jefferson streets, where the Y. W. C. A. building now stands. When the building was razed about 50 years ago, the wood used in the building was secured by L. D. Baughman, who was a carriage maker of the time. He used it to make a cupboard in the residence at 121 Elm street, and it is in use to this day, Pa Newc is told.

Weather conditions of the past week have resulted in a considerable increase in patronage for the street car lines in the city, Pa Newc observes.

Wonder how many community trees will be erected in New Castle this holiday season?

Evidently there are some youngsters who do not believe that the coasting regulations are of any value. Autoists report streets that are not designated by the city are being used by youngsters for coasting.

School Teachers Select Officers

Annual Election Of New Castle Branch Of P. S. E. A. Takes Place

MISS RHODES IS NAMED PRESIDENT

Meeting in the Senior High School auditorium Wednesday afternoon, the New Castle Branch of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association elected officers for the coming year. The officers elected are: president, Marjorie Rhodes; vice president, Ralph Lingerman; treasurer, Austin Cowmeadow; auditors, Lillian Sarver and Peter Grittie. The retiring officers are, president, Donald F. Copson; vice president, Evelyn Spencer; treasurer, William Wallace; and auditors, Graham Patterson and William Lehto.

The memory of three departed teachers was honored in a short memorial service at which a quartet composed of Miss Helen Allen, Ruth Drescher, Margaret Preston and Margaret Sankey sang, accompanied by Lillian Sarver. The quartet sang "Sometime We'll Understand." The three teachers thus honored were Matilda Ccley, Nannie Wilson and Mary Aiken.

President Copson also expressed the regret of the association in losing the services of two teachers who retired in the past term, Miss Kate Stockman and Miss Jane Aiken.

Following the business session a professional address was delivered by Dr. C. C. Green, Superintendent of Schools.

SECOND WARD DIVIDED FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Laurel Avenue Is Dividing Line For Two Buildings

In the future, students ready to enter senior high school from the Second ward will be assigned according to residence according to action of the school board Wednesday night. Any student residing north of Laurel boulevard will be assigned to the George Washington building and south of Laurel boulevard to the Senior High School for the first year's senior high classes.

In practice the custom has been carried on for two years due to the crowded condition of the Senior High School. Dr. Green asked the board to establish geographical lines and this was done.

This is not taken to mean that the rule is absolutely ironclad. If there is any reason why a student north of Laurel should go to Senior High School for his 10th grade work due to certain study requirements, he will be enrolled there.

On the other hand if any student south of Laurel boulevard desires to attend classes in the George Washington building he will be permitted to do so. The plan is merely to relieve the congestion in the Senior High School which is getting worse every year.

Police Squads To Make Visits

Will Enforce Saturday Midnight Ruling On Sales Of Liquor

PLACES MUST BE CLOSED AS ORDERED

Chief of Police John F. Haven today declared that squads of police in cruiser cars would visit places in which beer and liquor are sold Saturday night relative to his edict that beginning Saturday that all bottles containing intoxicants shall be off the table at midnight.

Having stated personally to some proprietors and publicly through the press recently that the police department will not permit bottles to be on the tables after midnight the chief added today that he proposed to put teeth in the edict.

It was on Monday that the city's police executive declared that the law provides for such places to close at midnight and added "the police intend to see that the law is enforced."

Must Obey Law

When asked what action would follow if some patrons purchases beer or liquor before midnight and it is on the table after midnight Saturday?" he replied:

"The law says they shall close at midnight and if the proprietors cannot run their own place, we will run it for them."

The chief also stated that "the proprietor is responsible but it is possible for us to 'take in' the patrons under the provisions of the disorderly house ordinance" passed during the Dunlap administration.

In places where no bottles are on the table and the patrons have food in front of them no action will be taken, he declared.

It may be that the squads of police, perhaps attired in plainclothes, and riding in the new cruiser cars, will not be able to pay a visit to each of the establishments but the chief declared that "the police will be on the job" intimating that several squads will be assigned to the task of seeing that his order is obeyed.

Warmer Weather Prevails Today

Forecasters Say Another Cold Wave May Be Here Tonight Or Friday

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13.—Sniffles and shivers were less evident in the Pittsburgh district today.

Rising steadily, the thermometer passed the freezing mark this morning as wintry blasts of the last few days abated.

Another cold wave tonight and tomorrow may be on the way, however, forecasters predicted.

HOLD EXAMINATION FOR INVESTIGATORS

U. S. Delegates Preparing To Leave Parley

Will Quit London Parley As Soon As Japan Renounces Treaty

DENUNCIATION IS EXPECTED NEXT WEEK

Japan Not To Abandon Demand For Naval Equality, Says Tokio

(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 13.— America's delegation to the London naval parley will leave almost on the day Washington receives Japan's notification of abrogation of the 5-5-3 ratio treaty.

This was made a practical certainty today following a conference between Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Britain and Norman H. Davis, America's unattached ambassador.

Failure of instructions the Japanese representatives expected from Tokio to arrive on time was responsible for the additional delay in suspension of the London talks.

Opposite View.

In his talk with Davis, Premier MacDonald was understood to have taken a view opposite to that of the cabinet, recommending continuance of the conversations until some basis could be found for formal resumption at a definite future date.

Japanese instructions, including information that denunciation would take place next week, probably Dec. 20, but not later than Dec. 22, were received this afternoon.

It was considered probable that the Americans would have to remain until the 20th.

They wanted to avoid the implication that they were unwilling to "string along" with the other two nations until all hope for success of the conferences must be abandoned.

It was understood that the Japanese would inform the British and Americans that they were willing to postpone further conversations if the others so desired, but that they wanted a definite date set for resumption.

To Be Disappointed.

Tokio, Dec. 13.—"Britain and the United States will be disappointed if they hope that adjournment of the London naval conversations will affect Japan's demand for naval equality."

This was the official reaction today to news from London that the preliminary discussions were about to be abandoned, before Japan denounces the Washington treaty.

Instead, the government accelerated steps to announce by Dec. 20 or 22 that Japan will terminate the naval pact. Final action by the privy council is expected within a few days.

Wiley Post Did Not Set Record

National Aeronautic Association Report New Altitude Mark Is Not Reached

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13— Wiley Post of "round-the-world" flight fame, failed in his attempt of December 7, to break the world's altitude record for airplanes, the national aeronautic association announced today.

Post, at Oklahoma City, when informed he had failed, said:

"I'll try it again."

The altitude reached was not disclosed by the N. A. A., but the federation aeronautique internationale stated that Post, in order to officially return the record, now held by Commander Donati, of Italy, at 47,352 feet, to this country, must climb 656 feet higher into the stratosphere, or to a height of 48,008.

Dr. Steedle Is Found Guilty Of Perjury Charge

Former State Representative Is Already Under Sentence For Conspiracy

REFUSES TO TALK FOLLOWING VERDICT

Counsel For Dr. Steedle, Former Political Power, Will Ask For New Trial

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13. — Dr. Joseph G. Steedle, McKees Rocks political leader and former state representative, who is under a two-year sentence for conspiracy to violate the election laws, was convicted by a Federal Court jury here today on a charge of perjury.

The verdict, sealed late yesterday when jurors reached their decision after an hour and a half of deliberation, was opened and read before Judge Robert M. Gibson this morning.

The conviction of the physician who was formerly a power in the state house of representatives resulted from testimony he gave in the vote conspiracy trial in which an unfavorable verdict was returned against him.

Will Seek New Trial

Sentence was not imposed when Dr. Steedle's counsel indicated he would file motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment within four days.

"I have not a thing to say," the former representative asserted after hearing the guilty verdict.

Taking the stand in his own defense, Dr. Steedle acknowledged he had told a jury he did not know who put up money as deposits for impounding a number of ballot boxes after the November, 1932, elections when widespread frauds were allegedly committed. Some days later, he asserted, he recalled the facts and sought permission to reappear before the jury to correct his testimony but the request was refused.

Has Appeal Pending

Wallace Ray, one of his former aides, raised $800 to impound the boxes, the defendant recalled.

The only other persons produced by the defense at the perjury trial were character witnesses.

Dr. Steedle has an appeal pending against his conviction and two-years prison sentence for conspiring to violate the election laws.

The conviction carries a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment and a $2,000 fine.

Truck Runs Over Sheriff's Son

Rear Wheel Of Two Ton Truck Passes Over One Of Lad's Legs

Edward Pritchard, Jr., age 11, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Pritchard, was injured at seven o'clock last night when the rear right wheel of a two-ton truck operated by J. E. Reid, of 821 Addis street, passed over one of the lad's legs. An examination by a physician showed the leg had not been fractured.

According to a report made to police young Pritchard was sliding on his feet in the alley which leads from Court street to the sheriff's office. He slid into the street and the rear wheel of the truck ran over one of his legs.

He is resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances today.

Attorneys Will Have Conference

Power Company And City Attorneys Called To Harrisburg Friday

PROCEDURE PLAN TO BE OUTLINED

City and Pennsylvania Power company attorneys, officials and engineers, will meet before the Public Service commission at 10 a. m. Friday at Harrisburg for the purpose of receiving instructions from the commission relative to the method of procedure as to the examination of the company's records here, it was announced today by Solicitor Robert White, legal representative of the city.

The examination was asked some time ago and the commission authorized an examination under their jurisdiction. Attorneys for both city and company could not agree on a method of procedure to examine the books in connection with a survey to determine whether or not rates charged here are just, so the commission has invited the group to appear before a full meeting of the body tomorrow.

As the commission will inform their own representatives fully in regard to the proposed examination, representatives on both sides are vitally interested and will be present according to White.

Turn Christmas Lights On Tonight

Downtown Section Will Be Blaze Of Glory As Decorations Are Lighted Up

New Castle's business section will be a blaze of glor. this evening, when the lights are turned on in the decorations which have been installed.

At regular intervals across the street, Christmas greens, in the form of streamers, with a wreath at either end, and with lights intermixed, have been installed. In front of every business house which has subscribed to the movement, will be a Christmas tree with a string of lights on it.

The effect is expected to be one of the most pleasing in years, and will add to the spirit of the season.

SENATOR McADOO STRICKEN ON TRIP

(International News Service)

MANILA, P. I., Dec. 13.—U. S. Senator William Gibbs McAdoo of California today was stricken ill while touring the Philippine Islands in company with Senators Tydings of Maryland and McKellar of Tennessee.

Word of Senator McAdoo's illness was contained in a brief dispatch to Governor General Frank Murphy. It did not describe the nature of the senator's illness but said he was being rushed to Manila tomorrow morning by airplane, at the order of his physician.

WILL ROGERS Says:

(Special To The News)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 13.—A fine old friend and one of the last of the great cowmen died in Fort Worth, Tex., W. T. Waggoner. He had one of two biggest ranches in the U. S.

It had oil all over it and it made him sore every time they found a new well, for he said it was always on the best grass land and just spoiled it for cattle. He would rather lose a dollar on a cow than make a thousand on an oil well.

He loved good horses and had the best in Texas. There will never be any class of people in our country that can replace the old western cowman, for common sense, shrewdness, humor and fine citizenship. The Three D lost a real boss.

Hear New Trial Arguments From Perkins' Counsel

Convicted NRA Violator Files For New Trial From Recent Decision Of Jury

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 13.—Arguments were to be heard in federal court here today on the new trial motion filed by counsel for Fred C. Perkins, York, Pa., battery manufacturer convicted on 10 counts of violating the NRA by refusing to pay his dozen employes the 40 cents an hour wage specified by the wet battery code.

Perkins, who paid his employes wages ranging from 16 to 25 cents an hour, faces a $500 fine on each count.

He claimed that to comply with the code would spell ruination for his small business.

Delay Merger Of Steel Companies

Tom M. Girdler, chairman of the Republic Steel Corp., announced that the special meeting of stockholders scheduled for December 17 to vote on the proposed consolidation has been postponed until February 5.

Chinese Bandits Brutally Murder Two Missionaries

Bodies Of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stam Are Found In China

FATE OF BABY IS STILL UNREVEALED

Parents And Baby Kidnaped Several Days Ago By Chinese Bandits

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, Dec. 13.—The brutal murder of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stam, of Paterson, N. J., members of the China Inland Mission, by Chinese Communist bandits was revealed today when their bodies were found by the roadside a few miles from the scene of their kidnaping.

The fate of their infant daughter Helen, seized with them at China Inland Mission headquarters at Tsingteh, Southern Anhwei Province, was not known.

The bodies, apparently flung into a ditch alongside the highway leading out of Tsingteh, were found by members of a searching party who had scoured the region since the missionary family was seized early this week.

Tsingteh has long been one of the strongholds of the Communist rebel hordes which the Nanking government for years has been attempting to obliterate.

The United States legation here, informed of the outrage, immediately protested to the Nanking government. Previous representations had been made, and every effort had been launched by government officials to locate the victims before they were harmed.

Grave fears were felt over the safety of the infant, as it appeared incredible the bandits would slay her parents and spirit the baby away unharmed. Finding of the two bodies accelerated search for the child.

So far as could be learned, no demand for ransom had been received by associates of the slain couple, although this was the procedure usually followed in kidnapings of this sort. Pending further investigation, it was impossible to learn whether the couple had been slain

Three Youths Are Believed Drowned

Start Dragging Schuylkill River Near Norristown, Pa., For Bodies Of Three

(International News Service)

NORRISTOWN, Dec. 13 —Police today began dragging the ice-strewn Schuylkill river near Wood Lane for the bodies of three boys reported to have drowned there.

The boys were said to have fallen into the river after trapping for muskrats on the west bank. It was not known whether they were attempting to cross the precariously thin ice.

The boys were seen struggling in the cold water by a Reading company trainman as his train was passing the spot. He reported it to the police of lower Merion and Conshohocken and details were immediately dispatched to search the river.

The searching parties were hampered by the scarcity of boats at the scene.

I've often wondered what It took to play in some one's band, and tootle tootle right along, with music loud and grand. I've watched the man who beats the drum, or plays the piccolo, but here's the one I'm curious bout, and I would like to know. Does it take knowledge of the art, to saw out tunes of charm; upon a big bull fiddle or just have a strong right arm. MANY BIDDERS SEEK SCHOOL BONDS HERE

Large Premium Is Bid For Issue

School Board Refinances Issue Of $60,000 Due In Coming Year

INTEREST RATE ON ISSUE REDUCED

Some indication of the soundness of the credit of the New Castle school district was given Wednesday night when $60,000 worth of bonds, due in 1935, were refinanced.

The bonds to be retired bear 4½ per cent interest, the new bonds will bear 3¾ per cent interest for 10 years, yet 12 well-known financial organizations bid for them. The best bid was that of Brown-Harriman Company of Philadelphia. They bid $63,166.80, plus accrued interest. This represents a premium of $3,-166.80 over the face value of the bonds. The unit price is $105.278.

Yarnall and Company were close to the successful bidders, their bid being $63,078.60, or a unit bid of $105.131. Other bidders were Singer, Dean and Scribner, a premium of $1,265. E. H. Rollins and Son, a premium of $1,830. McLaughlin and McAfee, a premium of $1,113.60. Halsey-Stuart, a premium of $725.95. Rutchen and Sherrod, a premium of $1,284. First National Bank of New Castle, a premium of $301. Graham, Parsons and Co., a premium of $378. W. H. Newbold Sons Co., a premium of $1,377.70. Leach Bros., a premium of $2,106. Glover and MacGregor, a premium of $1,320.50.

Bonds of the New Castle school district have always met a ready market. The unusually high price secured on Wednesday night itself speaks considerable for the financial soundness of the district.

Following the acceptance of the Brown-Harriman bid, Solicitor William J. Moffatt prepared and presented a resolution of adoption which complies with the school code. The one formality left is for the counsel of the Brown-Harriman Company to study the offer for legality, which will probably be a mere formality.

CHINESE BANDITS SLAY MISSIONARIES FROM PATERSON, N. J.

Expects Action.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The United States expects the Chinese government to take immediate steps to apprehend and execute the Chinese bandits responsible for the brutal murder of the American missionary couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stam of New Jersey, Acting Secretary of State Phillips said today.

Phillips said the state department took it for granted the American legation at Nanking already had made strong represntations to the Chinese government for apprehention of the bandits.

He added the legation at Nanking has standing instructions to act in such a case and that no representations from this end were considered necessary pending a report from Nanking.

No official report has been received concerning the murder of the couple or the whereabouts of their missing three-months-old baby.

Get Confirmation.

Philadelphia, Dec. 13.—A cablegram receivd here today by Dr. Robert Hall Glover, home director for America of the China inland mission, confirmed the fate of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stam, Paterson, N. J., missionaries, who were brutally slain by Chinese bandits near Tsingten, southern Anhwei province.

The cablegram read:

"A telegram from Wuhu (Yangtse river port) to Shanghai reports provincial government confirms death of Stams at hands of bandits."

The cablegram stated the bodies were found near Miaosheo.

"This is a horrible and brutal outrage," Dr. Glover told International News Service.

"I knew Mr. and Mrs. Stam very well. The former was an unusually fine man, and Mrs. Stam was exceptionally well gifted. They were two of our most promising workers in the Chinese mission field."

According to Dr. Glover, Stam was the son of Peter Stam, director of the Star of Hope mission, Paterson, N. J.

Mrs. Stam, Dr. Glover related, was born in Tsinan, China, the daughter of Rev. Charles Ernest Scott, noted missionary. She was a graduate of Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., and also attended the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

The Stams' infant, Helen, is three months old, Dr. Glover stated. He voiced anxiety over the fate of the child.

Single Call

The records of the fire department show that a single telephone alarm was received at 5:30 a. m., an hour which would tally generally with the story told by Thevenau. But there was no way to trace the telephone call and determine whether it came from Thevenau at the restaurant or Jones at the hotel.

A possible explanation was seen in the fact that the hotel's switchboard had given trouble and was out of service for half an hour the night before the fire.

Other phases of the investigation resulted in admission by the fire chief that he knew the Kerns Hotel was a firetrap; and testimony that wild parties were in progress in the hotel shortly before the flames were discovered.

Six of the charred bodies taken from the ruins of the four-story hotel, cannot be identified. The identified dead included a clergyman from Iowa and his wife; the hotel manager, and seven members of the Michigan legislature which began a special session Monday.

Rep. D. Knox Hanna, of Caro, Mich., who leaped from a window, died today in a hospital.

School teachers of the public school district will be paid the sum of $28,204.75 on Friday, which will represent a two weeks' pay, according to attaches of the city treasury. They will not receive any more wages before Christmas, it was reported. Several days later, December 18, the city employes will receive a two weeks' pay, which will amount to $10,500, it was also reported.

WORK OF CRANK

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 13.—Cleveland detectives today expressed the belief that an anonymous letter mailed from this city and containing what Tiffin, O., police construed as a threat against Governor-Elect Martin L. Davey, was the work of a crank.

The letter was addressed to the "Tiffin Fire Department, Tiffin, O.," and said in part, "Guns for Davey. His gang and him trying to enter Columbus, O." "Bell", was the signature on the missive.

May Force Canadian Distilleries To Pay

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON ,D. C., Dec 13—Hundreds of millions of dollars in custom and internal revenue may be collected by the United States government from Canadian distilleries, some of which have branches in the United States, as a result of smuggling operations conducted prior to the repeal of prohibition, it was confirmed here.

While treasury officials refused to discuss the subject except to admit than an investigation was in progress and that agents are now studying the Canadian records.

Treasury information is to the effect that many millions of gallons of Canadian liquors were smuggled into the United State annually prior to repeal.

May Collect

Under customs and internal revenue laws this government may collect a $5 a gallon import tax and a $1.10 a gallon internal revenue tax on all liquor smuggled into the country during prohibition.

Although the prohibition law is dead, repeal had nothing to do with customs duties or internal revenue taxation during prohibition.

A study has been started as to the legal aspects of tax recovery though levying against Canadian distillery properties now in the United States. These properties were established subsequent to the offenses complained of and some experts are doubtful whether collection could be made on that basis. Others felt that should this government get a judgment against the Canadian distilleries any property in the United States owned by these interests could be made liable.

Two Reservoirs May Be Built In District, Report

Would Build Flood Control Reservoir Near Warren And Sharpsville

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13.—Two reservoirs, one each at the headwaters of the Shenango and Mahoning rivers, are included among 39 recommended for the vast Ohio river valley flood control program, Major W. D. Styer, district army engineer, said here today.

Although both reservoirs, part of a $150,000,000 plan for preservation of lives and property from flood waters, were included in a general report submitted last week, a separate and more detailed report on the Beaver valley will be submitted to Washington within a few days, Styer disclosed.

Above Sharpsville.

The Shenango reservoir would be located on the Shenango river, about two miles above Sharpsville, while the Mahoning unit would be constructed at a point about five miles above Warren, O., according to Styer.

The Beaver report, including the Shenango and Mahoning rivers developments, is expected to go forward to the chief engineer "about the 15th"—Saturday.

Although unwilling to reveal detailed information in the Beaver report, Styer said it contained previous recommendations for canalization of the Beaver and Mahoning rivers, possibilities of a through canal to Lake Erie, and construction of several reservoirs for flood control on the Shenango and Mahoning rivers.

Reservoirs Recommended

Both reservoirs have already been recommended, Styer stated. Seven others on the Allegheny and one on the Monongahela would be included in the Western Pennsylvania portion of the project. Appropriation of funds and authorization to go ahead alone remain to put thousands of men to work on the re-employment through public works program.

A total of 1,600 projects involving an expenditure of eight billion dollars have been summarized in a lengthy document of studies completed by the army engineers since their organization, 132 years ago, the district chief added.

Many Not Feasible

Although many of these are not feasible for present consideration, many others are available for inclusion in any public works program which might be authorized by the administration, he pointed out.

From the summary's studies of navigation, conservation and flood control projects brought up to date from engineer's surveys throughout the United States, congress may select the plans which it deems feasible and the government engineers will be prepared to start work at once Styer said.

PROGRAM COMPLETE FOR NEW POST OFFICE DEDICATION SATURDAY

Chamber of Commerce committee—Roger W. Rowland, Alfred W. Chilton, Thomas W. Dickey, L. G. Genkinger and Fred L. Rentz.

Address by Hon. Charles B. Mayne, mayor.

Benediction—Rev. H. C. Weaver, former pastor First Methodist Episcopal church.

Music—Band.

Move Due On Saturday

Postmaster Steen announced today that everything has been arranged for the post office force to commence moving into its new home on next Saturday evening. However, he said no mails will be dispatched from the new post office until Sunday. All mail Saturday evening should be deposited at the old building.

The public will view a building that is not altogether completed when it inspects the spacious halls and rooms of the diamond building following the dedication on Saturday.

Bids for the downstairs lobby decoration have been received, it is learned, but no contract has been awarded as yet. Another contract is due to be awarded for the painting of the rest of the downstairs and upstairs office and work rooms.

Artistic light stands, to adorn the exterior of the entrances, still are to be erected.

But on Saturday the public will view a handsome new post office and federal headquarters from which, in the future, all government activities here will be supervised. The unfinished work will hardly be noticed by the dedication visitors.

Nandu is the Brazilian name of the South American ostrich.

SKIRT AND SWEATER OUTFIT WARM

The skirt and sweater outfit, such as the one pictured, is a most comfortable suit for chilly days. This plaided skirt contrasts chartreuse, yellow, brown and white, with the cardigan and pollover in matching chartreuse shade. The oxfords worn with it are of brown kid with triangular cutouts, and the brown felt hat is becoming.

Deaths of the Day

Time Of Funeral

Funeral services for Dr. E. N. Allison, aged 52, 61 West Wood St., Lowellville, Ohio will be held Saturday afternoon, with a short service at the home at 2 o'clock and service in the Lowellville Presbyterian church at 2:30 p. m. with the Knights Templar in charge.

Interment will be made in Forrest Lawn cemetery.

The family will receive friends this evening and until 4 p. m. Friday.

R. C. Shoemaker Funeral.

Funeral services for Robert C. Shoemaker, Slippery Rock township, were held Wednesday at 2 p. m., from the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Thomas Berger, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Charles Bell, former pastor, and the Rev. C. G. Johnston, pastor of Center United Presbyterian church. Mr. Shoemaker had been an active member of the church all his life.

A trio of the church choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Abide With Me"; a duet was sung by the Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Johnston, "Hope in God."

Mr. Shoemaker is survived by three sons, a daughter, nine grand children and five great grandchildren. The children are Emmet A. Shoemaker, Warren, Ohio; J. C. Shoemaker, Enon Valley; the Rev. F. L. Shoemaker, Durango, Col., Mrs. J. L. Gibson, Slippery Rock township and a sister, Mrs. Caroline Ramsey, of New Castle.

Mrs. Armstrong Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Armstrong were held Wednesday, December 12, at 2:30 p. m. from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Earl, old Pittsburgh road, with Dr. S. P. Copeland of the Third U. P. church officiating.

Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillman of Middletown, O., died in their home Wednesday, December 12. Mr. Hillman had been ill for the past six weeks and Mrs. Hillman was taken ill with bronchial pneumonia last Sunday. They died within a few hours of each other.

The following children survive: Mrs. Elizabeth Williams and Mrs. David Mort of this city, Mrs. Harry Brakeman, Mrs. John Moser, Mrs. Sarah Oselt, Mrs. Robert Deem and James Hillman, all of Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillman were residents of New Castle for many years but left here in 1910. Since then Mr. Hillman had been engaged in service with the American Rolling Mill company in various cities of the country, more recently in Middletown, O.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon from the home in Middletown, O. Mrs. Joseph C. Williams of Maitland lane had just returned from a visit to her parents when they were stricken. She is in Middletown at the present time and Mr. Williams will leave on Friday for Middletown.

Time Of Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Kemp, 927 Warren avenue, will be held Friday at 10 a. m., from St. Mary's church, with interment in the St. Mary's cemetery.

H. Burt Smiley.

Word has been received here of the death of H. Burt Smiley, Franklin, which occurred Wednesday night, December 12. He was well known in New Castle and his friends here are grieved to learn of his death.

For many years Mr. Smiley was master bricklayer for the Eclipse Oil Company of Franklin, but about two years ago his health broke and he was forced to resign. He was also well known in musical circles, having for many years, been leader of the Franklin corner band.

Mr. Smiley was 63 years of age. He is survived by his mother; his wife, Mrs. Maude Brown Smiley; two sons: James B. and Richard Bailey, both of Washington, D. C.

The funeral services will be held from the home, Eighth street, Franklin, Saturday afternoon.

Relatives from here who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Young and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. C. Ed Brown.

Mrs. Mary Matilda Cunningham

Mrs. Mary Matilda Cunningham, aged 87, widow of Albert H. Cunningham, Neshannock township, died this morning at 5:50 o'clock, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Angie Wilson, 323 Boyles avenue, with whom she had made her home the past year. Death was due to the infirmities of her age.

She was born in Wayne township, June 1, 1847, the daughter of William B. and Mary Ann McConahy. She had spent her lifetime in Lawrence county, most of that time in Neshannock township. She was married March 17, 1870 to Albert H. Cunningham, who died in 1888.

Mrs. Cunningham was a member of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church for many years.

She is survived by two sons: William B. and Albert H. Cunningham, Neshannock township: a daughter, Mrs. Angie M. Wilson, this city: four grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Ellwood City.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Ora: three sisters and a brother.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon, December 15, at 2 o'clock, from the Wilson home, 323 Boyles avenue, with interment in Slippery Rock cemetery.

Carrangi Funeral

Funeral services for Ben Carrangi of West Pittsburg were held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock from the Holy Cross church of West Pittsburg. The minister from the Providence church of Beaver Falls officiated.

Burial was made in the St. Nicholas cemetery on the Butler road. Pallbearers were members of his Italian lodge.

Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services for Clinton Jones, colored, will be held on Friday afternoon at two o'clock in the First Baptist church of Wampum, with the Rev. Matthews officiating. Interment will take place in the Clinton cemetery.

Vernon Perrine Given Release

Fail To Hold Grove City College Student On Mann Act In Brunner Case

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13. — The United States commissioner here today dismissed charges of violating the Mann Act against Vernon Perrine, Grove City College student, who was arrested several weeks ago following the disappearance of 16-year-old Yvonne Brunner, Grove City.

Two weeks after she had left on a trip for Florida, the girl was picked up in New Castle and later returned to her parents' home.

BITTER FIGHT ON RATES PROMISED

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 13.—A bitter fight was promised today by the Connellsville city council to give its domestic consumers a substantial reduction in the current rates.

When the gas company submitted a third rate schedule before the council, members rejected it because the proposed cut did not meet their reduction demands. The cut, it was pointed out, would aggregate only five cents a month and sixty cents a year for the average domestic consumer.

APPOINTS MINISTERS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt today appointed George T. Summerlin, of Louisiana, as minister to Panama, and Antonio C. Gonzalez, of New York City, as minister to Ecuador.

In 1900 tuberculosis killed more persons than any other disease. Now it occupies sixth place as a cause of death, heart disease having first place.

PAYLESS HOLIDAYS FOR CITY EMPLOYES OF EAST LIVERPOOL

(International News Service)

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Dec. 13.—Municipal officers today were given little hope for the payment of their salaries until after the first of the year.

Nearly 150 officials and employes of the city, many of whom have not received salary checks since August, face a gloomy Christmas. City council declared that it was improbable that legislation for the issuance of about $100,000 in anticipatory notes, or scrip, would be completed prior to January 1.

JUNE KNIGHT AND HUSBAND SEPARATE

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 13.—Twelve days ago June Knight, screen and stage star eloped to Chicago and married Paul Ames, Beverly Hills, Cal., socialite. Today Hollywood was astounded to learn the couple had separated.

David Livingston, San Francisco attorney, has been placed in charge of the affairs of the actress.

"I am sorry there is nothing I can say," Miss Knight said. "We separated just a few days ago. I have placed the matter in the hands of Mr. Livingston."

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and ¾ of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped somcat, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. ©1934, C.M.Co.

EAST SIDE CLUB CONTAINER EXCHANGE

Symbolic of the thoughts of the club members as to plants and gardens were the lovely containers for plants, exchanged by the members of the East Side Garden club at the Christmas meeting Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred Remley, East Washington street.

At one o'clock the women enjoyed a buffet luncheon from a table cleverly suggestive of the winter and Christmas, for centering the table was a glistening white snowball, over the top of which came a miniature Santa Claus and his reindeers, and the snow glistened under the glow of the tall white tapers; other appointments were carried out in red and silver, with Christmas greens used throughout the home.

Mrs. H. O. Sturdevant called a business meeting at close of luncheon, when 14 members and two guests: Mrs. C. D. Weiss and Mrs. F. C. Childs, answering roll call with the names of their favorite house plants. Plans were made for the sunshine gifts for shut-ins at Christmas and the committee: Mrs. Earl McKnight, Mrs. Elder Bryan, Elma Badger and Mrs. Fred Remley, will meet Monday evening, December 17, with Mrs. Sturdevant, to complete the plans.

Mrs. W. R. McKnight was in charge of the program and presented Mrs. C. R. Brenner, who had some novel ideas for Yuletide decorations. Mrs. Bart Richards had "Japanese Gardens" as her subject and Mrs. Elder Bryan presented some novel and interesting little animals for the Yuletide season, made from prunes, raisins and nuts. She recited an original poem, "Christmas Animals."

January 9 the group will meet with Mrs. Mary Robinson, Cumberland avenue.

At Foulke Home

Miss Diane Foulke, of Lincoln avenue, was a charming hostess to the Re Deal club Tuesday evening. Bridge, as usual, occupied attention with the prizes falling to Marguerite Mullen and Clara Bernine.

Gifts for each other were found under a Christmas tree, attractively decorated. Serving a dainty repast, the hostess had the assistance of Martha Wells, who was a visitor.

Isabelle Jones, of Moody avenue, will be hostess at the next meeting.

WIMODAUSIS CLUB HAS ANNUAL ELECTION

The members of the Wimodausis club enjoyed a delicious one o'clock luncheon Wednesday in the Cathedral, over which Mrs. John Madigan acted as hostess.

Mrs. H. L. Dague called a business meeting immediately after lunch, at which time the annual election was held.

Mrs. Dague will head the club for another year, with Mrs. John Madigan and Mrs. W. H. Shipler as vice presidents; Mrs. Milton Marshall, secretary; Mrs. Lolla McBride, financial secretary; and Mrs. Henry Halley, treasurer.

The program was dispensed with for the day, with plans to meet again January 9.

KUS KUS KA CHAPTER MEET AT BEAVER FALLS

Kus Kus Ka chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, will hold the December meeting tomorrow, at Beaver Falls, in the General Brodhead Hotel.

It will be an all day affair, with morning sessions opening at 11. Luncheon will be served at 1 followed by the afternoon session. Mrs. Morford Throckmorton, regent of the chapter which embraces five counties, will preside. Indications point to a large attendance, many members from New Castle expecting to go down if the weather permits.

DANCE EVENT FOR EMILY C. L. STEVENS

Invitations have been received in New Castle for a dance to be given in honor of Miss Emily Custis Lewis Stevens, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Martiau Stevens, Friday, December 28, at eleven o'clock, in the River Club, New York.

Miss Stevens is one of this season's popular debutantes in New York City, Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, where she has been presented to society at other social functions.

Butler License

A marriage license has been issued in Butler, to Dorothy J. Pherson, Volant, R. D. 3 and William C. Hogue, New Castle.

NORTH BEAVER CLUB HAS DINNER-MEETING

The annual Christmas dinner of the North Beaver Garden Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wylie Brewster, of the Mt. Jackson road, Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Seasonable decorations were used about the home, and htroughout the elegant menu served by the committee composed of Mrs. Howard Gilmore, Miss Frances Fullerton and J. Wylie Brewster.

Mrs. M. Dale Anderson, president was in charge of the business meeting, following at which C. E. Fullerton was welcomed as a new member. The anual election of officers featured, with the result that Mrs. J. W. Fullerton was named president, Julian Miller, first vice president: J. W. Brewster, second vice president: Mrs. Wm. McComb corresponding secretary: Mrs. Ella Reed, recording secretary: C. A. Stewart, treasurer: Mrs. Florence Andrews, member-at-large.

The remainder of the evening was spent informally with group singing and games.

On January 9, the next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Fullerton.

EMERGENCY CLUB AT NEW CASTLE HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Griffith and Mrs. Anna Gillespie presided as hostesses over one of the largest gatherings held this year, of the New Castle Hospital Emergency club members, Tuesday afternoon in the social rooms of the institution. They assembled at 2 o'clock and during the hours that followed, a great amount of sewing was accomplished.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Margaret Heaney and Mrs. Anna Duff when adjournment was called. On Wednesday, January 9, members will meet at the hospital for their first session of 1935. On this date, Mrs. Anna Duff and Miss Clare Duff will be in charge. The same hours will be observed.

M. W. Club

Mrs. Thomas Thomas, of Pine street, entertained her club members at her home Wednesday evening in the form of a Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged and later hours were devoted to card playing. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Everett Black and Mrs. Ernest Anderson.

A tasty Christmas lunch was served at the close of play by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Homer Miles.

Plans were tentatively made for a tureen dinner to be held at a later date. On January 9, Mrs. Homer Miles, North Ray street, will entertain.

Brisco Club.

Delightful hospitality was dispensed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Scarazzo on Laurel avenue on Wednesday evening when they received the members of the Brisco club.

The hours were delightfully whiled away playing cards and listening to music. At an appropriate time Mrs. E. H. Scarazzo, assisted by her daughter Mrs. Carl Tranquillo, Mrs. James Carvella, Mrs. Frank Marcella and Mrs. Nick DeCarbo, served dainty refreshments.

The Brisco club meets again on Wednesday, December 19.

Honor Member

Honoring Mrs. Alexander, a member of the class, the members of the Mrs. Lutton class of the Second United Presbyterian church met at luncheon in the home of Mrs. J. C. Wimer, of Marshall avenue on Wednesday at noon. Fourteen guests were present at the enjoyable gathering.

COSMO CLUB WOMAN EVENING AT CARDS

Instead of having an evening at bridge this evening, as scheduled, the wives of the Cosmo Club members will meet Wednesday evening, December 19, in the Club rooms, North Mercer street.

This party will mark the last of the series of bridge for the women and the grand award will be made to the woman who has high score for the period.

Mrs. Harry Klivans, Mrs. H. Friedman, Mrs. R. Deletsky and Mrs. M. Samuels will be hostesses for the event.

O. E. A. MEMBERS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. Sol Davies of Garfield avenue extended hospitality to members of the O. E. A. club Wednesday evening in her home, when she entertained in a delightful manner at their annual Christmas party. After the exchange of gifts, the hours were devoted to cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. P. Walter and Mrs. W. Weide.

At conclusion of play the hostess served a delicious repast, her daughter Louise and Miss Margaret Davies assisted with the menu. The tables were beautifully arranged in keeping with the season, and also, the rooms throughout suggested the Yuletide.

Special guests were Miss June Cox and Mrs. David Matthews.

On January 9 Mrs. Elmer Tinsman of Wilmington avenue will entertain informally at her home.

Entertains Class

Miss Violet Shuler of Dewey avenue, entertained the pupils of her music class at a cleverly arranged Christmas party on Wednesday evening, in her home.

Music and games, suggesting musical terms, comprised the program of the leisure period. Prizes were awarded to Betty Alexander, Jane Deep and Betty Jane Hulme.

During the evening, those assembled decided to organize into a club, which will be identified as the Etude Music club, and will meet each month, at one of the pupils homes.

The evening was climaxed with a pleasant surprise, when the young people were invited into the dining room where each was given a lovely gift by their hostess. Following, refreshments were served, Miss Shuler being assisted by her mother, Mrs. George Shuler and sister, Miss Shuler. The seasons tones prevailed in the appointments.

Micaletti-Largo.

This morning at 11 o'clock in the St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Nicholas D. Vita joined together in matrimony Miss Eleanor Micaletti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Micaletti of 1316 Hamilton street, and Ralph Largo son of Mrs. Anna Largo of 20 Division street.

Miss Betty Denardis was maid of honor and Querino Filigenzi, the groom's closest friend, served as best man. Patty Ann Seal was veil bearer. Following the ring ceremony, members of the immediate families and a few invited guests enjoyed a delicious dinner served in the bride's home, 1316 Hamilton street. Following a reception tonight in the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. Largo will leave for an extended honeymoon through eastern states.

The newlyweds will reside at 1316 Hamilton street.

AUXILIARY HAS ENJOYABLE PARTY

One of the most enjoyable parties of the winter season took place last evening under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Harry L. McBride post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in the Legion Home building.

The results of play showed Mrs. T. J. Nelson had high score in bridge, Mrs. Veach, Mrs. Helen Dunlap, Sam Smith and F. C. Conner in 500, and Aileen Evans, Mrs. J. Ickes, H. C. Ryhal and J. Ickes in bingo. Special bingo prizes went to Cal Leslie, Mrs. Ed. Ansel, Mrs. Ruth Conner, Jack LaRue, Mrs. Veach, Mrs. Marcy Cox, Clarence Conner and Mrs. Stewart.

The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Adella Evans, general chairlady, assisted by Emma Wood, Mabel Kennedy and Viola Ryhal, while Mrs. Elsie Lach had charge of the serving of refreshments, the concluding feature of the evening's entertainment.

HAMILLS WILL HAVE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

The month of December has a double significance, this year, for W. B. Hamill of North Beaver township, for on Friday, December 14, he will observe his eightieth birthday, and four days later, December 18, he and his wife will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

On the latter day, a reception will be held at their North Beaver home at which they expect to receive scores of friends as both Mr. and Mrs. Hamill are prominent residents of this vicinity. With the exception of fifteen years, which they spent in Pittsburgh, they have lived near here practically all their lives. They are the parents of three children, two sons and one daughter, who are equally well known.

NAMELESS BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Members of the Nameless Bridge club were entertained in a delightful manner Wednesday evening, by Miss Marian Rose Randall in her home on Boyles avenue.

Two tables of contract were in play, unique tallies and score pads reminiscent of Old English days, being used. The lovely favor for high score was awarded Miss Wanda White.

At a late hour, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert Houk, served a delicious lunch in keeping with the Yuletide season. The regular discussion of interesting incidents, followed.

The next meeting of club members will be with Miss Eloise Cole, the date to be announced.

Evening Event

About thirty guests, including members of the W. O. club with the husbands and other visitors, Mrs. Melita Pilch, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rishel, were pleasantly entertained Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Rilla Rishel, on King avenue.

Following a period of cards, the prizes was awarded to Mrs. Maude Thompson, and refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter Geraldine.

On the day after Christmas, there will be a party in the home of Mrs. Maude Thompson, on Tempalena avenue, at which gifts will be exchanged and an election of officers will feature.

Birthday Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanlon, 119 North Mill street, entertained Tuesday evening at a surprise party in honor of their daughter, Shirley Hammond, the occasion being her tenth birthday anniversary. Twenty-three girls and boys enjoyed the event, the pastimes being found in games of various knds, and music. Special features included a song by Constance Flanagan and an acrobat dance by the guest of honor.

At 9 o'clock lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Gilliland.

SEWING CONTINUED AT JAMESON HOSPITAL

This week and next are two of the busiest weeks in the whole year for women folks, getting ready for Christmas.

However, in spite of that fact, a number of women, among whom were several doctor's wives, went to Jameson Memorial hospital yesterday morning and sewed from 9 to 12. Mrs. D. C. Lindley and Mrs. A. W. Urmson cut material.

There will be a recess from now until the second Wednesday in January, when the work will be continued.

All Day Quilting

Meeting yesterday in the home of Mrs. Charles Anderson, at South New Castle, sixteen 1934 Jolly Quilters completed a quilt for Mrs. Ronald Anderson. A tureen dinner, at noon, was delicious, places being arranged at a prettily arranged table for two visitors, Mrs. Ruth Locke and Mrs. Arthur Williams.

At the next meeting, on January 2, at the home of Mrs. John Ulrich on Beckford street, a quilt will be put into the frames for Mrs. Jean Ulrich.

Balph Class Dinner

The Mary Balph Bible class of the Highland Presbyterian church will have a dinner Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the church.

The dinner will be followed by a business meeting and social evening.

Bennett Class Party

The members of the Bennett Bible class of the First Christian church will have their Christmas party Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the church.

B. P. W. CLUB WILL HAVE PARTY MONDAY

Of unusual interest on the calendar of winter activities for the Business and Professional Women's Club is the annual Christmas party which is to celebrated at the Y. W. C. A. next Monday evening, December 17.

The party arrangements are in charge of the emblem committee of which Miss Helen Meyer, is the chairman. A pageant is being prepared.

Dinner will be enjoyed at 5:45 with the informal social period following. As in former years the members will bring food to be presented to the Margaret L. Henry children's home.

How to Make Better Cough Remedy Than You Can Buy

A Big Saving, and It's So Easy! No Cooking!

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make at home. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking! No trouble at all.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. This gives you a full pint of truly wonderful cough remedy, far better than anything you could buy ready-made, and you get four times as much for your money. It lasts a long time, never spoils, and children love its taste.

This is positively the most effective, quick-acting cough remedy that money could buy. Instantly, you feel it penetrating the air passages. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes, and makes breathing easy. You've never seen its equal for prompt, lasting results.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable healing agent for severe coughs. It is guaranteed to please you, or money refunded.

TREES FOR CHRISTMAS

OVER the country the flow of Christmas trees from forests to markets has begun. All through the Adirondack region tree farmers are cutting the crop which will supply Philadelphia, New York and cities of the Mid-West, while the movement from Canada, New England, Virginia, West Virginia and the northern tier of states as far as Washington is under way

If preliminary reports that the public already is in a holiday spending mood are true, then it is likely Santa Claus will find more of the holiday hemlocks and spruces in homes on Christmas eve than for several years past.

In preparation for such an expected trade farmers are cutting more trees than ever. Statistics show that one man can cut and haul from 100 to 150 trees a day, although where long distances are involved, and where trees have to be carried over swampy ground, the process is often laborious and expensive. But the cutting and loading surely seems to have taken on a new impetus this year.

There is one disappointment, however, in the whole procedure. The tree farmer apparently has his troubles like farmers of any other kind. While the retail price of trees varies from fifty cents to $5, there are records of average-sized trees selling at five cents on the stump. The farmers wonder why.

Which recalls that other mystery never definitely solved by the Western cattle farmer who paid $1.25 for a six-ounce steak in a metropolitan hotel and went back home to see why he had sold his 300-pound steers on the hoof for $20 each. He never learned a convincing reason.

PERFECT DEVOTION

Kipling expressed in poetry the conviction that the purchase of a dog is an investment in unflinching love, in perfect passion and in worship. A news story from Rock Island, Ill., gives substance to this belief.

Ten years ago, "Shep," a collie, followed his master, Francis McMahon, into St. Anthony's Hospital and received a pat on the head in farewell as the man ascended to an operating room. A few days later Mr. McMahon died.

Ever since then, "Shep" has kept his vigil, watching the descending car, each time waiting expectantly for a familiar face. At first "Shep" would not eat but after a time physicians and other attendants succeeded in coaxing him away from the spot for his meals. He returns immediately to resume his watch.

To the thousands who have seen him and read of his fidelity, "Shep" must serve as an example of devotion found all too seldom in a rather thoughtless and heedless world of humans.

A POLICY NEEDED

A few days ago it was announced at Washington that for the first time since the United States became a wheat growing nation, an entire week had passed without there being exported from the United States a single bushel of wheat.

The explanation given by the AAA was the drought and the steadily declining exports. Officials at Washington called attention to the fact that only a few years ago the United States exported in one year 370,000,000 bushels of grain while up to 1929, the annual exports amounted to 150,000,000 bushels.

All of which leads to the conclusion that some of these days Uncle Sam is going to have to make up his mind whether he is going to try to be an exporter of wheat or not. Just now the wind seems to be blowing both ways. We have Secretary of State Hull seeking to find new markets for the export of our farm products and we have the AAA hiring the farmers to reduce acreage to a domestic basis thereby so increasing the domestic cost over the world price that exports will be extremely difficult.

BLOSSOMING GENIUS

A great deal of interesting information is coming from New York City about the little fellow of six years who is showing so many signs of being a mental marvel. The youngster knew his own name, his address and the addresses and telephone numbers of a dozen relatives when he was two. Since reaching the age of four he has read an average of a book a day. Now he is rated by authorities at the College of the City of New York as having an intelligence quotient higher than that of Charles Darwin, who expounded the theory of evolution, and almost as high as that of Albert Einstein.

Whether all of this is highly important is a question which only time can answer with complete satisfaction. The history of prodigies has not been one of unfailing achievement of the objectives of life that really matter. For his own good, no doubt, the name of the precocious youngster is being kept secret. Eventually his identity will be revealed to an interested world.

Probably the most vital feature of the child's story, however, is one that may be regarded as rather commonplace. The reports say that the lad has a robust physique and is in excellent health, that he plays with children his own age and enjoys their games. There are definite advantages in being a normal child in addition to being a prodigy.

Snappy days are here again.

There is one advantage about the modern kind of poverty. It doesn't include itch.

Aliens learn our language quicker than the baby does. You see, they aren't asked: "Does um wanta dinky waw-wak?"

There is a certain amount of danger in translating the utterances of politicians into English. The creatures will rise up and complain that they have been misquoted.

A California judge has sentenced a defendant to prison and married his wife. And no one but the prisoner knows which of the two has drawn the more severe penalty.

There is a rather widespread disposition to minimize the talents of Hitler but, in spite of everything, we feel confident that he will go down in history as one of the great soap-box orators of his day.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

A LOVELY POEM, BUT—

Someone whose name I do not know wrote this poem, and I think you may not be able to read it without a lump coming into your throat, and perhaps a tear or two welling up, unshed in your eyes. It is that kind of poem, made of simple words that magically come alive through the mystery of good writing.

"God, pity all the worried folk,
With griefs they do not tell,
Women walking in the night
And men dissembling well.
God, pity the brave who go—
The common road, and wear
No ribboned medal on their breast,
No laurel in their hair."

And yet, I hardly think that prayer is needed. God has no need to pity all the worried folk with griefs hidden in their breasts. He has no need to pity men who are deeply troubled, but hide their troubles too well for you and for me to see them. Not if they are brave, He need not pity them. He saves his pity, I am sure, for those who are afraid, for those who weep desperately and turn like frightened children, clutching the hands of strangers and begging for comfort. He knows those brave ones who walk the common road without medal or laurel are not yet in need of His pity.

The proud ones, the vain ones, the shallow folk, they are the ones who are most in need of pity. Those that have not suffered, those who have not plunged their arms even to the shoulder into the tangle of life, those that walk blindly and arrogantly through the crowded misery of their fellows, and have never waked in the night nor ever known the need of dissembling pain—these are the ones that have need of God's pity, and man's.

O Unknown Poet, the pitiable are not those you pity most. They are not those in whose behalf you ask God's gentle hand. Always the pitiable are those who seem to need it least, untouched by life and dull to its deepest pain and highest joy. Save your pitying words for such as these. Those others do not ask it.

SPEAKING WELL OF OTHERS AFFORDS FINE SELF-SATISFACTION

There is always a reward for control of impulse to say a mean thing.

If no other recompense, the feeling of personal satisfaction that the mean and evil impulse was not carried out makes you feel better.

You can't deal in filth without becoming smeared yourself.

You can't indulge in worthy pursuits without personal satisfaction.

What you think, what you do, what you say, all are bound to leave marks.

Wholesome thoughts and good deeds make you happier.

Despicable impulses carried out bring only dissatisfaction and unrest.

It is wonderful to realize that you are clean—ever think of it?

Nothing to plague and rob of joy at the time when happiness should come.

Nothing is gained by talking down the ability or the character of another.

But much is gained when you enumerate the good traits—the fine qualities of your friends and perhaps your rivals.

It frees you from tarnish to be able to speak well of those you know, even if you have no faith in their regard for you.

It is a clean feeling—try it and see.

And it is a habit that generates friendship rather than tearing it down.

The personal satisfaction derived is always worth a lot to you.

BRIDGE FROST

I have been chilled by winds unkind.
I've felt the snow upon my cheek,
But nothing cold that comes to mind
Exceeds the frosty way they speak.
This blighting scorn of what I did:
"Of course, you didn't have a bid!"

I mentioned diamonds once last night.
I thought the suit might help her out.
It seemed to me I had a right
An ace and king to talk about.
Then down my neck an iceberg slid:
"Of course, you didn't have a bid!"

I've sat in drafts; on bleacher seats
I've shivered through a football game.
I've felt the icy wind that beats
Upon the poor duck hunter's frame.
But here's the coldest blast of all:
"You never should have bid at all!"

There's a scandal in the Navy. And as a result Captain Jones has been put on the retired list long before he has reached the age limit.

Other officials in the Navy couldn't understand it. They always had considered Jones competent, in fact a first rate officer in every respect.

The scandal has leaked out. The Secretary of the Navy discovered that Jones is color blind. They sent his vessel to the Black Sea and, lo and behold, Jones showed up in the Red Sea.

RIVER SONG

Old river towns blink stupidly and gaze
Upon the water crinkled by a boat
Whose dull calliope sets tunes afloat
To filter through a blur of lights and haze.
Half drowsily it weaves a paraphrase
Of wisps of songs grown threadbare and remote.
And whimpering, a weird, nostaglic note
Brings back forgotten Aprils as it plays.

Gay cities far from any river edge
Imbibe the wine of music in great halls
Where panting symphonies arouse a pledge
To higher towers and more stalwart walls,
While somewhere a tired boat repeats old themes
And river towns recall their dusty dreams.

PALS

Here is a story from Virginia: On a recent visit of the President two ladies were seated next to Mrs. Roosevelt on the platform. One of them leaned over and whispered something to her at which Mrs. Roosevelt blushed. The other was curious to know what her friend had said, so as soon as the exercises were over and the official party had left, she inquired. "Oh," replied the other lady casually, "nothing much. I only told her she had a hole in her stocking."—Baltimore Evening Sun.

BY THE FOOTHILL PHILOSOPHER

Most pitiable of all human beings are those men and women who think that they are old because they forget that they are young.

* * *

No one is old who tries to give birth to a new thought every day, yet no one is wise who gives expression to every thought he thinks.

* * *

We know a man who has the friendship of many lovely women because they know he understands them and because they know he never will admit it.

* * *

Blessed are they that realize the wonder and glory of all that is new, yet who never relinquish the mystery of the old. Pity the man who sees anything in life as "commonplace."

A noted actress whose husband is also a noted actor, says she gets along with him great by just leaving him alone. Seems to us it is not a bad idea. Bet she don't even ask him to do housework. We knew a man once who was going to have an operation and he asked the doctor to cut housework out of him when he was doing the other operation.

"The toughest feature of the Asiatic question is the spelling of the names, and location on the map, of places mentioned in news cable despatches," writes I. H. Schwartz, of Cincinnati. The problem moved him to pen the following:

The spirit of the Samurai
Moves Nippon's strong and loyal sons;
From Honto to Kagoshima
And even unto Sakaehama.

In factory and paddy-field
The banzai echoes lustily.
As lads embark for Tashihchia
(Or is it Pehtwanlintze?)

Jehol, Chosen, Kirin, Fengtien—
They fall before the Emperor;
That's just a start, the boys move on
And take Chahar and Heilungkian.

The Manchu damsels do their part
To help the war pass pleasantly;
And romance blooms at Tsitsihar
While soldiers err at Hsiunghaycheng.

But this is war, grim and stark—
A chance shot scares Blagoveschensk;
The gals are told their charms to park,
While fighters march on Nerchinskizova.

It may be tough, those snows to roam;
It may be hard to leave your dames;
But heroes are the scribes at home
Who edit all those golblank names.

AFTERWARD

When we three together walked,

I used to think I could not live
If you should die!

I never thought—how could I then?
So close were you and I—
That we would ever walk apart
And Love could die!

European Situation Worries Economics Also Causes Wrinkles Naval Race Is On

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—This probably is not a happy Christmastide, beneath the surface, in Washington.

The European situation adds itself to the national economic difficulties, the capital-labor differences and the Japanese naval situation.

* * *

EUROPE

Briefly, Yugoslavia never would have become so cocky toward Hungary if France had not backed her. And Hungary would not have been so loud in her protests if Italy were not be-whispering confidences.

France is trying to draw a ring around Germany to prevent any changes in post-war treaties.

Post-war treaties have been responsible for much of the tragedy of post-war Europe, but France is insistent upon hemming Germany in.

France knows that, in spite of treaties, Germany has military potentialities which eventually could everwhelm France.

But France has joined Russia with itself in a pact, and the British, sitting back to see which way the cock will jump, seem inclined to permit France "to get away with it." The British fear Germany's increasing air force.

The British fear airplanes and submarines more than any other nation—being an island empire and depending upon shipping.

There is much more than that, of course, to the European situation. At basis, however, that is the essential truth. The minor countries of the Balkans never would dare to intimidate and bully if they did not have the backing of large countries.

It is the same old Europe of intrigue and politicians. Think of the bargainers between nations not as statesmen but as politicians dominated by the Big Business of their countries, and you will obtain a truer picture.

The brotherhood of man is an ideal which man does not seem eager to obtain. Even as two thousand years ago, the preacher of that ideal is stoned.

* * *

ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES

In spite of all the shouting that this is a prosperous Christmastide, the New Dealers are not entirely happy.

On the surface, this is the most prosperous season in five years.

Beneath the surface lies the stony fact that no actual basis for continued trade improvement is apparent.

As long as the government "primes the pump," a certain amount of the outpour will trickle into pockets.

But as long as natural trade remains stagnate, there is no natural flow of wealth.

America's chief sales must be in agricultural products—first and foremost. Next year, however, will be one of "ploughing under" again.

The increase in value of exports has been in certain manufactured products. Imports do not rise. Thus international balance of payments are thrown still more out of gear—and the farther out of balance they go, the more in debt other countries go to the United States, the less likely there is of any increasing trade movement.

Added to the American difficulties are increasing local taxes on trade. The sales tax, adopted by cities and states, is tending to decrease consumption where consumption is needed most, and to reduce standards of living where living standards should be raised most.

* * *

CAPITAL-LABOR

The labor truce of the Roosevelt administration is driving underground that which ordinarily would be brought to light. It is embittering both factions.

The Progessive group in congress, joined by such Democrats as Senator Robert Wagner of New York, intends to clarify the law—over the objections of many large business interests.

The clarification will aid labor's contentions.

The company union probably will be declared illegal, the National Labor Relations board probably will be given complete authority.

Proportional representation as a basis for voting likewise will go out in favor of majority representation.

("Under it labor is beaten even if it wins," says Frank J. Dillon, national organizer in Detroit for the A. F. of L. auto union.)

The unions are bitter, saying they have been bestrayed. Attempts at a majority vote have been sidetracked repeatedly by large companies. Defiance of the NRA as a whole mounts, companies asserting that the NRA is illegal in many of its aspects. The codes have been used chiefly to stabilize competition—the labor clauses having been bitterly fought.

Several large industries even have successfully evaded a code.

Among such industries are public utilities, milk companies and tobacco corporations.

Chairman S. Clay Williams of the NRA is head of one of the large tobacco corporations. It is said that he soon will retire from the NRA.

* * *

NAVAL RACE

As for the naval situation in the Pacific—a naval race not only is assured. It is on.

If Great Britain had been firm for naval reduction, Japan would have backed down.

But at the moment the British were sitting in conference in London, British trade delegates were in the Orient—and Japan played her hand well.

Besides, the British had nothing to gain by siding with the United States. Great Britain's interests are nearly identical with Japan's in the Orient.

Practical consideration, not ideology, rule the world.

TODAY Is The Day

By CLARK KINNAIRD Copyright 1934 Central Press

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13

The World War Day-By-Day—Dec. 13, 1914—It was the 65th birthday of Edmund Louis Zalinski, Polish born American who invented the pneumatic torpedo gun, a discovery immediately reported to European governments by their spies and adopted by them.

Lieut. Norman Holbrook, commanding the British submarine B-11, used the torpedo to good effect on this date in one of the most daring exploits of the whole year.

He made his way into the Dardanelles, passing under five rows of mines in the Straits, and torpedoed the 10,000-ton Turkish battleship Messoudieh while it lay inside of the land and sea defenses of Turkey. Then he brought the B-11 out again.

There was an American element in this feat—the Sperry gyroscopic compass, which had been introduced a short time before, to give "subs" their true bearing under water. Without one, their course was guess work.

The whole idea of the submarine, in fact, was American. The first submarine that attained any measure of success was built by David Bushnell of Connecticut, during the Revolution, with money supplied by the state of Maine. With it, one Sergeant Lee of the Continental Army, attacked the British ship-of-war Eagle in New York harbor.

Twenty years later, when Robert Fulton went to England and tried to get the Admiralty interested in a submarine he had designed, he was told that the British Navy had no use of such a device!

Napoleon told the same thing to another American submarine designer, John Fitch!!

History Up-To-Date—Dec. 13, 1545—Four cardinals, four archbishops, 21 bishops and five generals of orders met at the Council of Trent, in the Austrian Tyrol, at the call of Pope Paul III, in the most famous religious convocation in history. Protestants were invited, did not attend.

When it ended its sessions, 18 years later, during the reign of the fourth successor of Paul III, it had set the standard for Roman Catholic faith and practice for centuries and vastly increased the power of the papacy.

One outcome: the catechism.

* * *

Dec. 13, 1577—While millions of persons still believed the world was flat, Francis Drake, 37, sailed out of Plymouth, England, with five ships and 166 men on the voyage that was to end when he had become the first Englishman to sail around the world.

Drake's flagship, on the epochal voyage, the Golden Hind, was 100 tons, smaller than Mississippi River steamboats!!

* * *

Dec. 13, 1649—A provost marshal was appointed in England to seize ballad-singers and suppress stage-plays!! A week later, "some stage players in St. John Street were apprehended, their clothes taken away, and themselves carried to jail."

Reason: "Whereas the distressed state of Ireland, steeped in her own blood, and the distracted estate of England, threatened with a cloud of blood by civil war, call for all possible means to appease and avert the wrath of God appearing in these judgments . . ."—Ordinance of the Lords and Commons concerning Stage-plays.

Later, a fine of five shillings was inflicted upon any person attending such performances; and players caught in the act were publicly whipped!!

Dec. 13, 1809—By flickering candle light, without anaesthetics or antiseptics, Dr. Eraphiam McDowell, country practitioner in backwoods Kentucky, made medical history. He successfully performed the first abdominal operation in the world's history, and saved the life of courageous Mrs. Jane Crawford, who had ridden 60 miles on a horse, nearly dead from a 21-pound ovarian cyst, to seek his help.

While McDowell worked over her,

The boy hesitated, then ventured, hopefully. "The soap, sir."

New Sensation At Murder Case At Tulsa, Okla.

Philip Kennamer Says He Killed Gorrell To Prevent Kidnaping

(International News Service)

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 13.—Young Philip Kennamer's story of the slaying of John F. Gorrell, Jr., Thanksgiving night, assertedly to prevent a $20,000 kidnaping plot, created a new sensation today in the mystery that has driven members of Tulsa's young society set into hiding.

Kennamer, the 19-year-old son of Federal Judge Franklin E. Kennamer, said his plea will be one of self-defense in the killing of Gorrell, a dental student. Kennamer is being held on a charge of murder.

Angered by Kennamer's refusal to go through with a plot to extort $20,000 from Homer F. Wilcox, wealthy oil man, by kidnaping Wilcox's daughter, Virginia, Gorrell drew a small calibre pistol and tried to kill him, Kennamer said.

Fight For Gun

Then the dental student was shot and killed in a fight for possession of the weapon, according to the prisoner's story.

Kennamer's detailed statement brought Sidney Born, Jr., more closely into the picture. Young Born was found shot to death in an automobile last Sunday night. Born, in whose car Kennamer rode to the fatal appointment with Gorrell, knew of the kidnaping plot and also knew of Kennamer's decision to thwart it, according to the statement.

"Sidney was murdered, and I know it, and it might have been by one of three young men or someone in their employ," the judge's son declared.

Following threats received by several of the state's leading witnesses, authorities today were guarding seven youths. One of these, Preston Cochran, 19-year-old son of a prominent attorney, was reported in hiding.

Maxie Baer Would Meet Lasky-Hamas Both In One Night

Heavyweight Champion Makes Unusual Boast Of His Prowess In Cleveland

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 13.—After much pondering, Cleveland's fight fans were unanimous today in declaring the latest idea of Max Baer, heavyweight champion of the world, to bring back million dollar gates by meeting two logical contenders the same evening, was "okay."

In all seriousness and with no show of braggadocio, Max outlined his plan to engage in a "double barrel" heavyweight championship party, meeting Steve Hamas and Art Lasky in the same ring the same day or night.

Max said the plan was not a boast and that he was not sure he could defeat two outstanding opponents within a half hour of each other, but he does think he stands a good chance to do it.

Senior High Band May Be Provided With New Uniforms

Board To Look Into Plan To Secure New Outfits For Players

Possibilities of new uniforms for the Senior High School Band are seen as the result of action taken Wednesday night by the New Castle School Board. A committee is to be appointed to investigate the possibilities of getting new uniforms and will report at the next meeting of the board.

The matter was brought up by Roy W. Hazen, who said: "It seems to me that we should consider the idea of getting new uniforms for the band boys. The present uniforms never did look any too good. When they were new the design of them was still rather poor, but now the color is faded and a number of the boys have only parts of uniforms."

The idea of a band and orchestra concert, in which the various civic bodies would be asked to co-operate was broached and received favorable consideration. Vice President J. H. McIlvenny, who was in the chair, was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate.

The band is an important part of the school and civic life. At football games they add color and zest to the spirit of the day, while in every civic enterprise where music is needed they are found donating their services. It is felt that the citizens would be glad to respond to a call for aid in getting uniforms that look good and would add to the general appearance of the band.

YOUTH IS LOST

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 13.—Fastnesses of the Allegheny mountains were being combed today in a search for Joseph Turick, 18-year-old Bellwood youth, reported missing since Monday.

Turick was said to have left his home to go hunting deer in Mulligan Hollow, a youth answering Turick's description was seen in that vicinity the same day.

State Patrol To Prosecute "1-Eye" Drivers

City Police Turns Over Prosecution Task To Highway "Cops"

CAMPAIGN TO START TONIGHT

Persons arrested for operating automobiles and motor trucks in the city with one light will be turned over by city police to State Highway police for prosecution, Chief of city police John F. Haven stated today. Originally it had been proposed to prosecute them in city police court. The change was made by the chief because the Highway patrol has stated it would be willing to bring the prosecutions.

When the State Highway patrol makes a prosecution they do so before a local alderman.

In prospective cases to be brought they will prosecute and if need be city police will appear as witnesses.

Under the law a fine of $10.00, and costs can be levied. In city circles no costs are added to the $10.00 fine.

The chief stated that numerous "one-eye" drivers were seen last night but no arrests were made.

"The story in yesterday's paper may not have been seen by all autoists and I did not want to take any unfair advantage. However, autoists having been warned Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and today should not drive a car with one light tonight. If they do they can expect to pay for the infraction of the law" the chief declared.

New Project For Work In Schools

Books Will Be Rebound According To Action Taken By Board

Upon recommendation of Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, another RWD project will be asked for the schools, this to be a book binding project. There are hundreds of books in the system that need rebound and if they were rebound the district would be saved the expense of new books.

Dr. Green suggested the board buy enough materials and equipment for the binding of 1000 books. The cost of materials and equipment would be $134.81, but the district would have the equipment for future work.

"I am not so sure of this idea" said A. C. Hyde.

"Would it save any money" asked W. W. Duff.

"It would, just as the stadium project has saved money" said Dr. Green. "We always need books repaired and we can save a lot of money by doing it ourselves. In addition the labor would be free so that it would be an immediate saving and also a future saving.

The project will give employment to five women and a man for several weeks. The $134.81 to be spent will represent about $700 worth of work.

Accident Victims Recovering Fast

Friends of Miss Ruth Long of the Butler road and Mrs. James Morgan of Lathrop street will be pleased to know they are recovering from the effects of a recent automobile accident in Pittsburgh.

Both of them are at the home of George Morgan in McKeesport. At first it was feared that Miss Long, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, had a fractured skull. Examination found this to be wrong, although she did suffer a concussion.

If they continue to improve, both of them will likely be brought back home within a short time.

New Legislation Proposals Will Be Given Study

Some discussion ensued Wednesday night before the New Castle school board adjourned, concerning the possibility of new legislation before the 1935 General Assembly which would ease the tax burden on real estate and yet provide more money for schools.

The local board is more than ordinarily interested inasmuch as Director W. W. Duff is president of the Second Class School Directors association and Dr. C. C. Green is president of the School Superintendents of the Second Class Districts. Both organizations will probably be interested in new legislation.

It was suggested that each of the men named be asked to represent the board at any meetings called by the organizations and this will be done. Two tax plans are under consideration, one general sales tax and the other an income tax, either of which is to go to schools.

Bow And Arrow Used In Hunt

A huge bow and arrow was Scout Executive Herber Horton's weapon during a short hunting expedition about 20 miles east of Franklin, but, fortunately for the deer none came within shooting distance.

"I have not doubt concerning the accuracy and effectiveness of a well aimed arrow," Scout Executive Horton said to a News reporter this morning," and I believe that I could have had a deer if I had had the time to stalk their trails."

Mr. Horton saw a huge owl, lots of flying squirrels and partridges, during the trip. He was accompanied by Rev. A. M. Stump, also of this city.

Biddle Assures Relief Workers

Merit Alone Will Be Test Of Fitness For Retaining Jobs, Is Report

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13—Members of the administrative staffs of the state emergency relief board today had assurance from Eric H. Biddle, state emergency relief director, that his successor in the incoming administration, Robert L. Johnson, will insist upon merit alone as a test of fitness for retaining their jobs.

Speaking to more than 1,000 employes of the board's administrative staffs last night, Biddle said a conference he had with his successor convinced him "as to Mr. Johnson's high purpose in carrying out his announced intention to insist on an unbiased and non-partisan administration of relief." He added:

"It is my judgment he has the capacity to make good that promise as far as is humanly possible.

"He has asked me to tell you and I firmly believe that he will insist on merit alone as the test of fitness and that your continuance on the job will depend solely upon the ability you demonstrate.

Biddle said he expected to meet with Johnson again and "with utmost frankness" give him an appraisal of the strengths and weakness of the relief organization.

Philadelphia Boy Given Check By Mrs. Roosevelt

First Lady Turns Over $1,000 Gift Check To Sufferer Of Infantile Paralysis

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—In all the wide land no happier child existed today than Walter Fox, eight-year-old son of a Philadelphia truck driver.

Through the benevolence of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the boy, crippled by infantile paralysis, will soon have his chance to be cured, if that is found possible. Beside the bed in which he has lain for two years was a check for $1,000 bestowed upon Walter by the first lady to be used to send him to the Warm Springs, Ga., hospital.

The check was conferred upon Mrs. Roosevelt last night before a brilliant banquet gathering of 1,000 guests here. The money represents the Gimbel award given annually to the "country's outstanding woman of the year." During the same ceremony Mrs. Mary Louise Curtis Bok was given the $1,000 award as the woman who had done most for Philadelphia in 1934.

Two Defendants Found "Not Guilty"

Steve Markovich And Frank Haluk Cleared Of Helping To Steal Ten Ton Scale

After being out until almost midnight last night a jury in the case of Steve Markovich and Frank Haluk, of Youngstown, O., who have been on trial before Judge R. L. Hildebrand on a charge of breaking and entering, returned a verdict of not guilty. The verdict was returned when court convened this morning and the defendants were discharged.

The defendants were charged with being implicated with Paul Kissh, also of Youngstown, in a robbery at the John Jones service station on the New Castle-Youngstown road, where a two ton scale, valued at $200 and a quantity of tobacco and cigars, valued at $35.00 were stolen.

Kissh entered a plea of guilty at the opening of the trial and the case proceeded as against the other two defendants, the commonwealth seeking to connect them up with the robbery. However there was no direct evidence to that effect. There was some evidence tending to show that Kissh had asked the defendants to help unload his scale at Youngstown, but they claimed that they did not know the scale had been stolen.

As the scale weighed over two tons, it was evident that it had not been loaded by one man. Kissh, after he had pleaded guilty, was questioned as to how the scale had been loaded. He said that a man named Joe Smith, and another man whom he knew only as "Mike" had helped him. He was unable to tell where they lived in Youngstown.

In the charge to the jury in the case against Markovich and Haluk the court directed a verdict of not guilty against Markovich.

ALLEGED ILLEGAL LIQUOR IS FOUND IN WODALKO HOME

The case of Mary Wodalko of Shenango township, charged with having illegal liquor in her possession, is on trial at court today before Judge James A. Chambers. The information was made by Constable W. R. Waddington of Shenango township. He claims that two pints of liquor were found in the Wodalko home, one of them being found under a pillow on a davenport. Mrs. Wodalko denies that the liquor belonged to her, claiming that it was the property of boarders, and that she did not know anything about it. This is the last case on the list for trial at the present term of court. All jurors not on the case were discharged this morning.

SISTER SHOOTS TWO CHILDREN

(International News Service)

TRENTON, Ont., Dec. 13.—Tragedy today gripped the simple farm home of Robert Thompson, after two of his children were shot to death, according to police, by an elder sister while their father slept in a nearby room.

Authorities said the two victims, Ina and Neil Thompson, aged 12 and 14, were shot in the eyes by their sister, Marjorie, 16, who was recently treated for a mental disease. Officials stated an inquest was unlikely because of the alleged mental condition of the girl.

Police said Marjorie had obtained a rifle, loaded it, and then fatally wounded the two youngsters.

START COMPILING SCHOOL BUDGET

Requests have gone out from the office of Superintendent of Schools Dr. C. C. Green to the principals of the schools, asking them to begin compiling their data for budget requirements. These reports of the principals must be in the hands of the superintendent by January 31 as the budget committee expects to start its work by then.

LEWISBURG, PA., WOMAN MISSING

(International News Service)

LEWISBURG, Pa., Dec. 13—Spurred by fears of her husband that she may have been the victim of foul play, police today pressed their search for Mrs. Charles E. Stimeling, who disappeared from her home here December 3 apparently to go on a shopping trip to Sunbury, 10 miles away.

Believing that she had gone to visit friends or relatives, her husband and two daughters said they entertained no fears for her safety at first. Mrs. Stimeling, according to her family, disappeared for a few days once previously.

CHRISTMAS TREAT FOR ALMIRA HOME WOMEN

Christmas cheer will be dispensed by A. B. D. Girls, on the eve before, to Almira Home residents, arrangements for trimming the tree which is furnished each year by Mrs. J. N. Martin and the girls, having been completed at a business session, Wednesday evening, at Mrs. Martin's home, on North Mercer street.

A committee composed of Mrs. J. Myron Rice, Mrs. J. B. Foster, Mrs. W. O. Rugh, Misses Ruth Woodworth, Frances Maxwell and Margaret Hice, will be in charge that evening, and under the tree will be placed donations of candy and fruit for each member at the Home. Besides planning this project, other charitable activities were discussed among a good attendance of members who were present.

Amity Club

A most interesting and delightful meeting was held on Wednesday evening when members of the Amity club assembled in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Burgo, of East Washington street.

Following a brief business session, cards were enjoyed with Miss Yolanda Carney winning a prize. During the course of the evening, Miss Ida Casacchia was tendered a handkerchief shower in honor of her birthday anniversary. She also received an attractive gift from the club.

Much merriment was caused by a stunt performed by Ann Burgo, Ida Casacchia, Mary Bullano and Yolanda Carney. Ellene Agnew was a special guest. Dainty refreshments were served late in the evening.

On Tuesday evening, January 8, Miss Yolanda Carney, of Gilmore street, will entertain the club.

Old Time Rebekahs

Wednesday at noon the members of the Old Time Rebekahs enjoyed a luncheon in the home of Miss Ninnie Howard, Huron avenue, with places arranged for 23. Mrs. Joseph Powers and son, and Miss Katherine Newbury were special guests.

During the afternoon an election of officers was held with Mrs. Anna Crowe named president; Mrs. Hattie Nowling and Mrs. Jane Campbell, vice presidents; Mrs. Edith Campbell, secretary-treasurer.

There was an exchange of gifts featured the afternoon.

January 9 Mrs. Daisy Brown, 308 Hillcrest avenue, will be hostess to the group, with Mrs. L. Vickery as associate hostess.

A. G. P. Club

An enjoyable meeting of the A. G. P. club members, was held Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. William Dean on the Wilmington road. Music and 500 formed the diversions, and lovely prizes for honors was carried off by Mrs. Matthew Tripp and Mrs. Tillie Hartman.

In two weeks, Mrs. Carl Kahrer of Laurel boulevard will receive members.

B. N. W. Assembly.

Mrs. W. Nicholson opened her home on Berger Place Wednesday evening to members of the B. N. W. club who had a pleasant evening playing cards. Mrs. Arthur Hawk and Mrs. Edith Shaffer won the smart favors and Mrs. L. W. Nicholson helped with luncheon. Miss Harlan was a visitor.

In three weeks there will be a meeting in the home of Mrs. Edith Shaffer on Court street.

School Boy To Get Sentence

Jury Finds Paul Spece, 15, Guilty Of Second Degree Murder In Father's Death

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 13—Fifteen year old Paul Spece, Manheim township high school sophomore, today awaited the sentence which probably will be imposed Saturday morning for his conviction of second degree murder for slaying his father, Stephen, following a quarrel.

The verdict of the jury, which recommended mercy, was returned after one and one-half hours' deliberation. The boy accepted it calmly.

Declaring the "facts unmistakably point to first degree murder," District Attorney Paul A. Mueller, however told the jury he did not desire the death penalty because of the youth's age.

"I didn't mean to kill him—I only wanted to scare him," Paul sobbed as he took the witness stand in his own defense to relate how he shot his father after the latter dragged him out of bed and beat him for refusing to go to the Reading Fair to sell pretzels.

Elm Street Y. W.

DRAMATICS CLASS

Members of the Dramatics class met last night at 7:30 o'clock in the Elm Street Y. W. C. A. The class is progressing splendidly, more students attending each week. It is extremely fortunate in having the talented Mrs. Willis Lash as instructor. Arrangements are being made to give a play sometime in January. The class also plans to have a program next Wednesday night with the principal speakers as Thomas Farrow, Fred Wilkes, Jr., James Fuller, Rebecca Muldrow, Mrs. Jackson, Marie Jones, Mildred Engs, Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Willis Lash and Clarence Henley.

NO MEETING FRIDAY

No meeting of the New Castle school board will be held on Friday night although this is the new night established by the board for meetings. The meeting of Wednesday night cleaned up all the work before the board so that it is unnecessary to hold a Friday night meeting.

Future meetings will be held on second Friday night of each month.

Urge Utilities To Lower Rates

Public Service Commission Continues Drive For Six Per Cent Net Profit Basis

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13—Continuing its efforts to bring rates down to a six per cent net profit basis, the public Service Commission today had dispatched letters to 14 more utility concerns asking them for voluntary revision of tariffs.

The commission asked for replies from the concerns by January 15, although names were not divulged because of the informal nature of the cases, the commission said the list included water, gas, telephone and electric companies.

"Today's action is in keeping with the commission's already announced program to force utilities operating in Pennsylvania to lower their charges or show the commission cause why their present rates are fair and reasonable," the commission stated.

"Letter similar to those that went out today were sent to 50 utilities last October. They resulted, either directly or indirectly, in producing annual savings to consumers amounting to $1,413,829."

Would Seize Most Of War Profits By Plan From Baruch

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Copyright, 1934, By International News Service

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Federal confiscation of 85 or 90 percent of all war profits was advocated by Bernard M. Baruch today as the basis for President Roosevelt's plan to take the profits out of war.

Baruch, in an interview, expressed the view that if an 85 or 90 percent federal tax was imposed upon war profits it would eliminate the profit incentive from war and become one of the greatest steps toward maintenance of peace the world has ever seen.

Restrict Profits

One of the chief figures called to the White House by President Roosevelt to lay the groundwork for legislatiive action to take the profits out of war, Baruch said:

"An 85 or 90 percent tax on war profits would restrict the expansion of profits possible in peacetime and thus leave no incentive for business to wish to continue war for monetary gain.

"It would be more profitable for business to have peace than war.

"Furthermore, a federal act to take the profits out of war would be the most powerful defensive weapon this nation could possess.

"No other nation would dare tread on our toes, because we could mobilize so quickly and concentrate so much energy solely on fighting that it would be foolhardy to risk a war with us.

Would End Wars

"Everyone in the country would be desirous of ending the war as quickly as possible and with the nation pulling as one, we would prove more than a match for any nation or group of nations that sought to attack us."

Baruch recalled he had been sponsoring the profitless war plan ever since the close of the World War. Besides a tax on profits, he would have federal control of prices, goods, foods, rents, wages, and all activities that yield profit in war time.

He emphasized his plan for control of wages and services would not involve conscription of labor, to which he said he was opposed.

ALL-AMERICAN GUARD TO WED

Charles (Doc) Hartwig, University of Pittsburgh's All-American guard, failed to hold the line against Dan Cupid's plunges. The grid star is pictured with his fiancee, Dorothy Frazier, of Washington, Pa. The wedding is to be in June, after graduation.

Bauman Will Help To Coach At Alabama

Although he is not eligible to play for Alabama this season Earl Bauman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bauman, of 306 East Winter avenue will be actively connected with basketball at the southern university. He has been appointed assistant coach of the Freshman team and will take them to New Orleans for a game during the Christmas holidays.

Bauman was the mainstay of the championship Alabama team last year and is expected to be of material assistance to Freshman Coach Burman. Burman has turned out a winner for four years straight his teams never losing a game in that period.

FEDERAL HOUSING CREATES BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The Federal Housing Administration has created more than $145,000,000 worth of business, affecting a wide range of industry, James A. Moffett, federal housing administrator, told the Advertising club of New York at a luncheon today.

BABY IS BORN FEW HOURS AFTER AUTO COLLISION

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—Less than two hours after a truck, allegedly driven by a drunken driver, crashed into the car in which she was being taken to a hospital, Mrs. Thomas R. Cunningham today gave birth to a baby girl.

Hospital attaches reported both mother and child doing "nicely," none the worse for the crash.

The expectant mother was being driven to the institution by her husband when the truck, operated by Robert Harris, 35, crashed into their automobile. Harris was pronounced intoxicated by a police surgeon.

ANOTHER WAGNER

The Ed Wagner, mentioned in connection with a court case last week, was not Ed. Wagner of Boston avenue. The latter has been put to considerable embarrassment on acount of the similarity of names.

Byrns Assured Of Speakership

Rep. Joseph Byrns Of Tennessee Will Rule House As Speaker

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Rep. Joseph Byrns of Tennessee today was assured of election as speaker of the house in the 74th congress.

Confident for weeks of his election, Byrns saw the field being cleared for his unanimous nomination by house Democrats as rival candidates withdrew from the fight.

Byrns' nomination by the huge house majority to succeed the late Speaker Henry T. Rainey is expected to come when the party caucus gathers January 2, one day before congress convenes.

Withdrawal of Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, regarded as Byrns' most formidable opponent, and Rep. John W. Rankin of Mississippi left only two other major speakership candidates in the race.

They are Reps. William Bankhead of Alabama and James Mead of New York. Bankhead is expected to withdraw and to seek the next highest party post of Democratic floor leader. Although Mead is a candidate for speaker, his managers conceded that his goal is the leadership position.

Rayburn withdrew with the statement that he could not be elected. Supported for the post by Prof. Raymond Moley and some of the leaders of the "Young Liberals" in the administration, Rayburn nevertheless failed to gain the support of major party leaders which he expected.

The Democratic fight shifted to the floor leadership with the speakers question virtually decided. Candidates for this post, now held by Byrns, include: Reps. O'Connor of New York, McCormack of Massachusetts, Rankin of Mississippi and Greenwood of Indiana.

Many To Attend Inaugural Ball

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13—A galaxy of national and state Democratic leaders from Washington and several states are planning to attend Pennsylvania's first Democratic inaugural ball in 44 years on January 15, Wendell P. C. Morgenthaler, chairman, announced today.

Morganthaler also announced that marching clubs from all 67 counties have adopted the official inaugural badge being distributed by Young Democratic Clubs of Pennsylvania. These organizations will wear the medallions in the inaugural parade.

Late Mrs. Frick Leaves Fortune

Relatives Share In Millions Left By Late Mrs. Adelaide H. C. Frick

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13—Children grandchildren and relatives of the late Mrs. Adelaide H. C. Frick, shared in her $4,378,249 estate in a decree of distribution handed down by Judge H. Walton Mitchell in orphan's court here today.

Disclosing a net estate of $3,083,883, the decree stipulates that Miss Helen Frick, a daughter, received personal property amounting to $1,029,738. Childs Frick, a son, receives $1,782,849.

Each of four grandchildren receive $100,000. They are Henry Clay, II, Frances D. Frick, Martha M., and Adelaide Frick. Earl K. Overholt, a relative receives $5,000.

Two weeks ago an audit filed in orphans court revealed that Helen Frick had transferred her half interest in a $3,000,000 trust fund left by Mrs. Frick to her brother Childs.

Inheritance taxes amounting to more than $1,000,000 on the widow's estate were paid recently.

GRANGE ADOPTS TWO RESOLUTIONS

(International News Service)

HERSHEY, Pa., Dec. 13.—Resolutions urging graduated state income and inheritance taxes, re-enactment of the emergency sales tax and extension of rural electrification were adopted by the Pennsylvania State Grange today at its 62nd convention.

The Grange also approved a resolution urging that the state take over all township highways and bridges.

She Works in Wood

Leona Lewis

In 1928 Miss Leona Lewis of St. Petersburg, Fla., organized a wood working company to make knitting needles, knitting bag tops and wooden buttons. Her workers do most of the finishing and polishing of the woods by hand, rubbing to a beautiful surface such woods as rosewood, satinwood, gumwood and English hairwood. In addition to her wood working plant, Miss Lewis sells real estate and insurance.

Claims Trio Robbed Him Last Night

Auto Used By Trio Serotwk's Report To Police Says

Frank Serotwk, 1027 Maryland Avenue, reported to police last night he was attacked by three young men and robbed of a watch and 79 cents at Taylor and South Mill streets. He had been drinking according to Chief of detectives McMullen, who has assigned detectives to investigate the robbery. It is the first report of a trio of young men who use an auto to find men who have been drinking and then "roll" them for their valuables and money.

He said three young men in an auto stopped their car at Taylor and Mill streets where Serotwk was awating a street car.

"Maybe you got some money?" suggested one of the men, whereupon Serotwk claims the trio jumped from the machine, threw him and stole his watch and 79 cents.

None of the chaps were over 20 according to the complainant.

The detective division is investigating the report.

Sets Up Board To Investigate Prison Industry

President Roosevelt Establishes Board Following Conflicts With Labor

MAY LESSEN COMPETITION

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—President Roosevelt has set up what he terms the "Federal Prison Industries, Inc.," for the purpose of determining "in what manner and to what extent industrial operation shall be carried on" in the various penal and correctional institutions of the country.

Mr. Roosevelt appointed to the board five men, headed by Federal Prison Director Sanford Bates, and including representatives of industry, labor, agriculture and retailers and consumers.

Mr. Roosevelt explained that innumerable conflicts between private industry and federal, state and municipal authorities over industrial production in penal institutions caused him to appoint the corporation.

The executive order not only directed the new corporation to determine just how far penal institutions shall go in producing manufactured goods but also directed that it shall diversify prison operations so that no single private industry will bear an undue burden of competition with prison workshops.

The executive order also directed that all executive departments and independent agencies of the government shall cooperate with the corporation and shall purchase at prices not exceeding current market quotations the products or services of the penal institution industries to the extent required or permitted by law.

MILLBURN

Alfred Ramsey spent several days last week at the game refuge at New Mansville, Pa.

Improvements are being made on the bridge which spans Mill run at the Christley farm.

The Millburn Men's club held its regular monthly meeting at the hall on Monday evening.

Mrs. H. J. Minnich and Mrs. Carlton Minnich visited Mrs. Frank Woods one day recently.

Mrs. Sara Glenn and Ruth and Franklin visited her brother, S. O. Drake and family, recently.

Mrs. Klingensmith of the Sharon-Mercer road spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Walter Clinefelter.

Mrs. H. L. Patterson attended the White Chapel missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. G. C. Blake at Indian Run.

Mrs. LeRoy Holden accompanied her husband as far as Sheffield and remained with relatives while he was hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell of Buffalo were week-end guests of the former's brother, J. R. Campbell and wife.

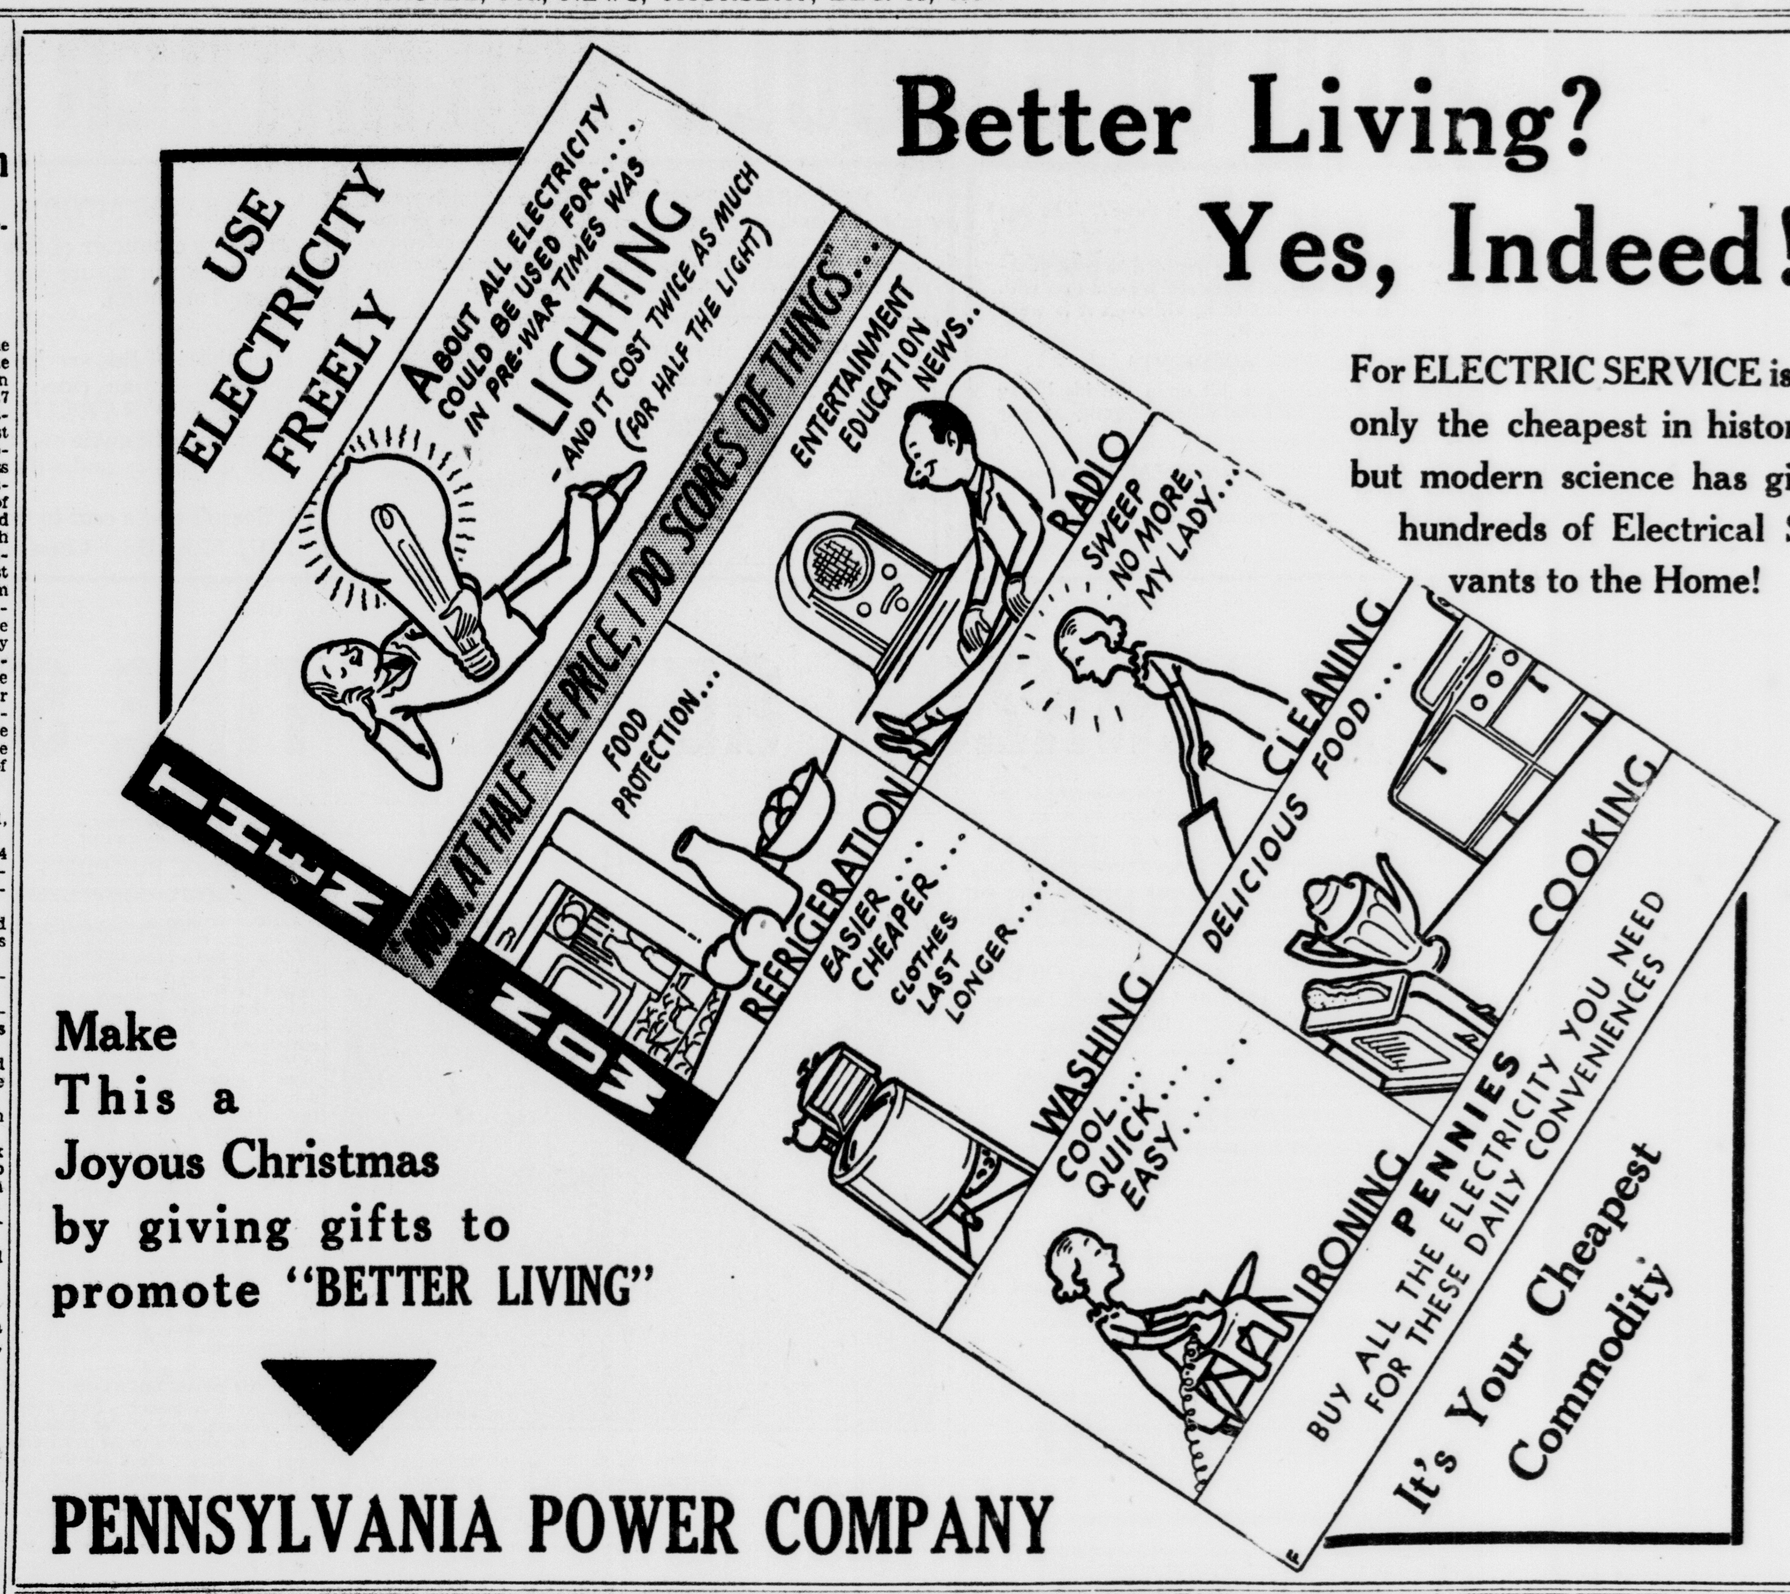
W. I. Blake was one of the successful hunters who returned with his deer. Mr. Blake and L. M. Cummings were Monday business callers in Volant.

M. B. Orr is attending the sessions of Pennsylvania state grange at Hershey, Pa., this week. Mrs. Orr is spending the week at Rouseville with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buckley and son of Wilkinsburg were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weaver. Mrs. Weaver was hostess to several ladies at quiltings on two succeeding Wednesday afternoons.

The Mercer County Extension Bureau will hold a meeting to plan a program for the coming year's work at Millburn grange hall on Thursday, December 13, at 2:30 p. m. A good attendance was urged.

The lure of the deer hunt still calls many to the woods. Lloyd Jenkins, Charles Blumenshine and LeRoy Holden spent several days at their camp near Marienville. Mr. Holden and Robert Holliday went on Tuesday to Raymilton. John Wolbert, his sons Howard and Leo, and James Hartt spent a day in Forest county. Charles Masters accompanied his cousins, Homer and Russell Giboney of Ohio, to Kellettville. Word has come from the camp at First Forks that Edwin Armstrong has a deer. However, it remained for Paul Knauff and Kenneth Douglass to get just a little bit ahead of the rest when they each shot a buck, one with eight points and one with six in the neighborhood of the M. B. Orr farm. Several groups of deer have been seen in the vicinity and many local hunters are on the alert to "get their deer" near home.



Game Law Violators Fewer This Season

Twenty-Four Cases Prosecuted In County During November Period

Twenty-four different violations of the small game laws in Lawrence county during the past hunting season, from November 1 to November 30, netted the state fines aggregating more than $500, game law enforcement officers announced today.

They said there were fewer law infractions this year than during the 1933 season.

Only in one or two cases were jail terms served by violators who were unable to pay their fines.

Among the Bedouins of Egypt, flies are sent by Allah to suck out bad blood and must not be driven away, even though whole clusters of them settle on the babies' eyes.

GARDNER

Edna Irene Derr has been out of school for several days suffering with an attack of grip.

Miss Helen Yargo, of New Castle, was an over-night guest of friends at Gardner on Tuesday.

Mrs. Edith White, of the Frew Mill road, has been ill for some time and her condition is not much changed and she is still in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Overmoyer, of the Ellwood road, entertained Miss Pearl Hahn, a student nurse at the New Castle hospital, on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Cora B. Ricker, of Youngstown, has been preaching every night at Ellwood City, for a mission of the Church of God, and making her home with friends at Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Craig, Jr., of Ellwood City, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West, of McCaslin. William West has returned from a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Blair, of the Harlansburg road, attended the Christian Missionary Alliance church in Butler last Sunday, and spent the afternoon at the home of their brother, John Bowers.

Orin Vance and son, Arthur, were hunting at Sinnamahoning, in Cameron county, and on Sunday Mrs. Orin Vance and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Arthur Vance, Mrs. William McKinley and children, all went to the mountains and saw 71 automobiles, each one carrying a deer.

Mrs. Hale and her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Derr, of Gardner, were glad on Monday to receive word that Benjamin Hale, their son and brother, a soldier in the World's War, who was in the hospital many weeks, is now at his home improving nicely. Mr. Hale is married and lives in Portland, Maine.

Rev. Albert J. Ringer Schumaker was a member of a leadership training conference which was held at Columbus, O., and closed Saturday night, and Mr. Schumaker took the train for New Castle and spent Sunday with his mother and sister at Gardner, going to his home in Philadelphia on Sunday night.

Mrs. A. H. Wade, of the Butler road, is serving on the jury this week. Mr. Wade and his brother-in-law, Carl Bovard, of New Castle, went to Emporium on a hunting trip and they each shot an eight-point deer the first day. Mr. Wade's brother, from Philadelphia, joined the party and to him was given Mr. Wade's trophy. The one Mr. Bovard shot was brought to New Castle.

Harlansburg Road

Mrs. Venetta Kildoo is visiting relatives in Plaingrove.

Norman Montgomery spent a few days with his father, of near New Wilmington.

Mrs. Williams, who has been confined to her home with an attack of quinsy, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McFarland and family have moved to their new home in Leesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William McConahay, of Plaingrove, spent Sunday with Mrs. Jennie Walton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McCracken spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David McCullough, of near Zion.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Synder returned home Thursday from a trip to Texas, where they spent several weeks.

Miss Bertha Kerr is spending a few weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Stoner, of New Castle.

Miss Bertha McCracken, of Edenburg, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCracken.

Mrs. R. J. Cameron and grandson, Paul, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Book, of Sumner avenue, New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dean and family, of East Brook, spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dean and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McCracken, a recent bride and groom, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Closs, of near Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Vogan and family, Miss Charlotte Emery, of New Castle, spent one evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hunt, Mrs. J. A. Boak, and son, Francis, left Monday for Hershey, Pa., where they will attend the State Grange Convention. State Master J. A. Boak left earlier in the week.

UPTURN IS SEEN IN STEEL OUTPUT

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 13.—Steel output in this district advanced to 38 per cent at mid-week with 34 of the 83 open hearth furnaces on the active list and two Bessemer plants in operation.

Preparing for a better demand for steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube company began preparations yesterday to light another blast furnace at its Campbell plant.

Carnegie Steel company probably will blow in an additional stack soon after the holidays.

Republic Steel corporation added an open hearth furnace here, and its finishing mill operations also show improvement.

WHICH TIRE WOULD YOU RATHER HAVE?

There's no doubt of your choice, is there? The one on the right is obviously the better.

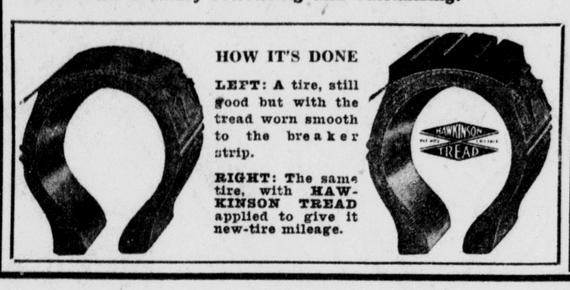
And yet too often you may be tempted to trust yourself to tires like that on the left. It's still a good tire, with hundreds of miles of wear left in it, although it is worn smooth. You hate to discard it.

WE PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Here at our station we've hit upon the ideal way to make those smooth tires as mileage-strong as any brand-new tires.

We are placing HAWKINSON TREADS on many a tire like the one at the left, giving them thousands of miles of extra wear at a fraction of the cost of a new "shoe".

HAWKINSON TREADS are strips of high-grade rubber, scientifically applied only to that portion of the tire that actually wears. The process protects sidewalls against the heat-weakening that too often goes hand-in-hand with ordinary retreading and vulcanizing.



HOW IT'S DONE

LEFT: A tire, still good but with the tread worn smooth to the breaker strip.

RIGHT: The same tire, with HAWKINSON TREAD applied to give it new-tire mileage.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

The high character of this service and the skill of our workmen assure you of fair, courteous and prompt attention.

One phase of this service is the free, scientific inspection of your tires. We'll tell you whether HAWKINSON TREADS can be economically applied, and will quote you a price that is in keeping with our policy and with your pocketbook.

It doesn't cost a cent to find out about HAWKINSON TREADS. Come in soon.

Five Reported Found Dead On Island Retreat

Famed Baroness Eloise De Wagner Among Victims Of Mysterious Island Deaths

Copyright, 1934, International News Service

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Dec. 13—Five persons, including the far-famed Baroness Eloise Bosquet De Wagner, self-styled "empress" of Floreana Island in the Galapagos, died in the mysterious series of tragedies which wrecked the modern Garden of Eden, according to fragmentary reports received here today.

The dispatches indicated that Baroness and Robert Phillipson, a German who was the last to enjoy her favor and affections, had perished in fleeing from Florena Island, also known as Charles Island But the details of their death were not known.

Two bodies found on the bleak shore of Marchena Island have been tentatively identified as those of Alfred Rudolph Lorenz and Trygve Nuggurud, Norwegian sailor. The fifth victim of the blight that struck the back to nature camp was Dr. Friedrich Ritter, former German dentist, who died from eating the tainted meat of a chicken.

Died Of Hunger

The dispatches reported the Baroness and Phillipson died of hunger after setting out from Floreana Island for the South after a scene of violence in her "castle" in the interior of the island, which resulted in the structure being reduced to shambles.

They were bound for Chatham Island, according to the reports, and although they made a hasty departure, the Baroness found time to write a letter to the wife of the owner of San Cristobal Island in the Galapagos, advising her she had hidden a store of jewels and other treasures in the mountains of Floreano.

Violent Breakup

Break-up of the modern Eden occurred in March of this year after a series of violent clashes between Phillipson and Lorenz. The latter was the Baroness' original favorite, but when Phillipson supplanted him in her favor, intense rivalry developed and engendered many hand-to-hand clashes between the two men.

Nothing was heard of the Baroness and Phillipson from the time they left the island. Whether they preceded Lorenze and Nuggurud or whether the Baroness' tyrannical rule over the island enabled her to cast the latter into exile before her own departure remain a mystery.

TO REPAINT SEATS IN AUDITORIUM

Superintendent S. G. Ligo was authorized by the school board on Wednesday night to prepare an RWD project for the repainting of the seats in the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school and the waxing of the floor. The decoration of the walls and ceiling is about finished and the seats and floor are to be put into shape to correspond with the splendid appearance of the auditorium.

Y. M. C. A. HOLIDAY PARTY NEXT WEEK

Winters Chairman Of Event; 'Nutty' Basketball Tourney Will Feature

The Christmas fellowship party for the Y. M. C. A. membership will be held on Thursday evening, December 20 with a committee composed of William Winters, chairman; Dario Baptiste and Jack Boyles in charge. The Committee of Twelve will sponsor it.

Jack Boyles will be in charge of the serving committee and will have the following club fellows for assistants, Alec Samuels, Howard Warnock, Nick George and John Hodge, while Dario Baptiste and Charles Jones will direct the "nutty basketball tournament" which will be open at 7:30. Members of the chair committee will be Paul Gilbert, Joseph Bara, Ralph Brooks and Newt Campbell.

The pool and billiard and ping pong room will be open to all members of young men's clubs and the senior department or dormitory men who do not wish to enter the basketball tournament.

After the tournament ends, the group will assemble in the lobby for a program of music and speaking A Christmas message will be brought by Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, after which a lunch will be served by the association.

Members of the young men's clubs, church league players, or senior members of the physical department will be welcome to enter the "nutty" games, the committee announces.

NEW GALILEE

SURPRISE PARTY

F. W. Jenkins was taken completely by surprise Saturday evening honoring his birthday anniversary, as the carefully laid plans of Mrs. Jenkins were successfully carried out. The guests numbering forty-five were cousins, and their families. An enjoyable evening was spent and at a late hour a delightful lunch was served.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

R. C. Garvin of Beaver Falls, was surprised Wednesday evening when twenty-four guests from New Galilee, Darlington, Rochester, and Beaver Falls, gathered at his home to remind him of his seventy-third birthday anniversary. Miss Helen Garvin of this place presented her grandfather with a large birthday cake at the close of the evening. A delicious lunch was served.

NEW GALILEE NOTES

Mrs. Elsie Blatch has returned to her home after a week's visit in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jenkins and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenkins motored to Lisbon, Ohio, Sunday.

A rousing serenade was held Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson, who had just returned from their wedding trip to Niagara Falls. The wedding was an event of Thanksgiving day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Howell. Rev. H. L. Main officiated.

The ecorcheurs were lawless bands infesting the rural districts of France and Belgium during the Hundred Years' war.

They're Selling the South

Shannon Will Remain Head Of State Guard

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—His apparent determination to minimize politics in forming the new state administration was manifested anew today by Governor-Elect George H. Earle as the result of his announcement that Major General Edward C. Shannon will be retained as commander of the Pennsylvania National Guard.

A lifelong Republican, Shannon will relinquish his post as Lieutenant Governor on January 15 when the Gifford Pinchot administration at Harrisburg expires to be succeeded by the Earle regime.

The governor-elect made known his intention of keeping Shannon as National Guard commander last night after a day of strenuous cabinet deliberations with Democratic leaders and after conferring with the major general himself. With his announcement Earle laid at rest numerous reports that a change in the command of the guard had been contemplated.

Expressing the "highest regard" for Shannon and his work and pointing to the military organization's "tremendous usefulness and value to the commonwealth," the governor-elect declared:

"The National Guard should be and will be kept out of politics. A high standard of military efficiency can be insured only through an administration free of political interference."

French Canadian children celebrate Noel with a game like blind-man's buff

CANADA

Noel is celebrated above the border with a game called "The Girls' Grand Lodge of Oddfellows," which is played by children. Girls gather in the room and bring in one boy at a time who is blindfolded and told he will be kissed on the cheek by one of the girls. If he can guess correctly he may have privilege of returning kiss. Girls have a small boy hidden behind them who does the kissing, so the boys can never guess. Each boy after failure is allowed to remain to watch the fun as others are fooled.

FIRE ALARM SYSTEM IN SCHOOL BUILDINGS ABOUT COMPLETED

Another project of the RWD in the schools is about finished, according to S. G. Ligo, Superintendent of buildings and grounds. The project is the fire alarm system which has been installed in all schools. In the high and junior high schools a Class A coded system is in force, and in the elementary schools, a class B or howler system is in force. Every school child in the system is now protected by a fire alarm system that is modern.

TO MOVE LOCKERS

Seventy two lockers from the George Washington Junior gymnasium will be removed to the new team room on Taggart Field, for the use of athletic teams using the room in the future. At the meeting of the New Castle School Board Wednesday night A. C. Hyde brought out the fact that there were 2400 lockers in the Washington school and about 1000 students. He said it was economy to use these lockers instead of buying new ones and the transfer was ordered.

Christmas Spirit In Air At Westminster College

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 13—Christmas spirit is in the air on the Westminster College campus as students and faculty members crowd in numerous activities and events before the start of the Christmas recess on December 20.

"The Messiah," sacred cantata, will be presented in the chapel Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Professor Alan B. Davis announces. Students, faculty, alumni, and a few guest soloists from nearby towns will take part in the cantata.

Next Tuesday afternoon at 4:45 the Y. W. C. A. will hold a twilight Christmas service in the chapel. Gordon Balch Nevin will be at the organ, presenting his annual Christmas vesper service, the second recital of the year for the popular Westminster instructor.

Christmas carols will be sung on South terrace on Wednesday evening, December 19. This carol singing will be under the direction of Professor Alan B. Davis and members of the conservatory staff.

In addition to these activities, a number of fraternities and sororities are planning special Christmas parties. Kappa Phi Lambda has a house party scheduled for Friday, starting at 4 in the afternoon and lasting until 11. This party will include a dinner at 6 o'clock.

The varsity basketball season opens with a home game with Wittenberg on Monday evening, Dec. 17. Christmas recess starts at noon on Thursday, Dec. 20. Recess ends on Wednesday, January 2, with classes resuming Thursday morning, January 3.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA IN CONCERT TONIGHT

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 13.—The Westminster College orchestra will give its annual concert tonight in the local Community House, Professor Donald O. Cameron, director, announces.

The orchestra, composed of 26 students, will present music of a popular nature in the concert, Professor Cameron has said. The program will last about an hour.

WATCH KIDNEYS SAME AS BOWELS

Wash Out Your 79,200 Feet of Kidney Tubes

Your bowels contain only 27 feet of intestines, yet the kidneys contain nearly 10 million tiny tubes or filters which would measure 79,200 feet if laid end to end. Therefore, it is just as important to watch the kidneys as the bowels. Kidneys are working all the time and are Nature's chief way of taking the acids and poisonous waste out of the blood.

Healthy persons pass 3 pints a day thru the bladder which contains nearly 4 pounds of waste matter. If you pass less than this amount, your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes may be clogged with poisonous waste. This is the danger signal and may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

Kidneys should be watched closely and need cleaning out the same as bowels. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, an old prescription, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out your 79,200 feet of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs and so-called "kidney cures" which claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS, the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

New Castle In 1850 Described In Letter In Fraternal Paper

Hidden away among a lot of old papers, Mrs. George Henderson has unearthed a copy of the I. O. O. F. fraternal paper under date of August 24, 1850, which contains an account of then existing New Castle.

The article is an interesting one and follows:

This is one of the most thriving towns in the Western part of the State. It now contains nearly 4,000 inhabitants and a more industrious and enterprising population is hard to be found. Last year there were over one hundred buildings erected and from present indications this year will show a little greater number, including a court house and jail and other public buildings, which are soon to be put under way.

The village is handsomely located at the junction of the Shenango and Neshannock Creeks and on the Erie Extension Canal leading to the lakes by Erie. It is also connected with the Great Lakes and the Ohio river by the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal. The streams in and about the borough afford the most abundant water power which is used to the greatest advantage by the numerous mills which are seated thereon. The surrounding hills abound in coal, iron ore, limestone and in that quality of stone used in the manufacture of window glass. This stone is found in the greatest abundance and the window glass made from it here is said to be superior to any manufactured in this country.

Within the limits of the borough are two foundries, two rolling mills, two oil mills, three flouring mills, three sawmills, one window glass factory, one steam edge-tool factory, one brewery, two large tanneries—one steam, four hotels and one large one in the course of erection. It contains six churches—one each of Presbyterian, Associate Reform Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Reformed Presbyterian and Seceder. There are also in the town one lodge and one encampment of Odd Fellows, one Masonic Lodge, two divisions of Sons of Temperance and one Mechanics Mutual Protection Society.

Two weekly newspapers are published here, the New Castle Gazette, a whig paper edited by Craig and Shaw and the Lawrence Journal by Kuester & Telford. Both papers are well supported and ably conducted.

The principal manufacturing establishments are the two rolling mills. One of these is owned by the Cosalo Iron Co., of which our friend and Brother W. P. Reynolds, Esq. is clerk. We are promised a statement of the conditions and capabilities of this concern which we will be happy to publish as soon as furnished.

The other is called the Orizaba Iron Works owned by Peebles and Co. and is one of the most complete establishments of the kind in the country. We were particularly well pleased with the appearance of these works, especially the high, roomy and well ventilated buildings contrasted with the low roofed, pent up establishments of our own city. To the polite and obliging clerk of this mill, Mr. S. F. Cooke, we are indebted for the following particulars: The mill building is 216x150 feet, the roofs forming one immense span. Under ths are one refinery. 8 puddling furnaces, 7 heating furnaces including one sheet iron furnace, one puddling mill; one ball machine, one bar mill and one small mill which turns 60 tons of manufactured iron of all sizes weekly, and one sheet iron mill. Beneath the same roof is the nail factory containing 18 nail machines and one wrought spike machine turning out 700 kegs of nails weekly. They are now engaged in putting up 24 additional nail machines which will be ready for operation in October next, when they will be enabled to turn out nearly 1600 kegs weekly. A keg factory also is connected with the works which will manufacture the kegs required for their own use. About 1500 bushels of coal are used daily. This article is extremely abundant in the neighborhood. That used in the mill is obtained from a farm in the vicinity owned by McCormick and Peebles.

It gives us great satisfaction to record these evidences of prosperity in New Castle and we would not be surprised if in the course of a few years she would be found at no geat distance in the wake of the "Birmingham of America."

Expert Gives Startling Testimony

"Dazzled by Beauty," says Style Authority. "Guessed New 1935 Dodge to be Worth Hundreds of Dollars Above Actual Price."

"I actually caught my breath when I had my first view of the new Dodge for 1935," says Miss Dorris Bishop, who, as a buyer for a large New York store, knows value thoroughly.

"Its smartness is dazzling, and it's so utterly modern. It looks like one of the more expensive cars—so you can imagine my surprise when I learned it will be priced down in the popular market."

Watch for the new, 1935 Dodge—and expect to be surprised when you see how much value it offers you . . . for such a low price!

Man Of 84 Years In Role Of Santa

Says Christmas Spirit Seems To Be More Prevalent Than For Some Years

One of the oldest men in Santa Claus roles in Pennsylvania and probably in the United States, as far as is known, is in New Castle.

William Botham, of 713 East Main street, who has played the role of Saint Nick for over 20 years in this city, is very agile despite the fact that he is 84 years of age.

Asked what he thinks about present conditions, Old Saint Nick readily replied that he sees the depression slowly passing by "Unlike the past few years, people are now spending more money and appear to have a more optimistic feeling" the bearded old gent concluded.

Red Cross Has Many Activities

Report Shows Two Classes In Home Hygiene And Six In First Aid Organized

ROLL CALL MAY EXCEED LAST YEAR

Lawrence county's Red Cross Chapter, which is one of the affiliated bodies of the New Castle Community Chest, is carrying out more activities this winter than in any year since the World War, a report of the program given by the various chairmen at the monthly meeting of the executive committee Wednesday afternoon revealed.

Six classes in first aid work, which range from Boy Scout troops, to industrial organizations, are either now in progress or will be started the first of the year, with a membership of 149 persons, it was reported by Ralph F. Davis, chairman of first aid.

One class in home hygiene and care of the sick is completing its work in Ellwood City, and another class will be started today among the women of the Colored Y. W. C. A. today, Mrs. W. A. Pond, chairman of this particular branch of nursing activity, stated.

The preliminary report from the annual roll call showed several districts had made notable increases in membership during the recent roll call, and it is expected that the final roll call report will show the receipts in excess of those recorded last year.

Prior to the meeting of the executive committee, there was a meeting of the nursing committee, which was well attended. Mrs. David H. Kay presided, and excellent reports on the various activities were submitted by the sub-chairmen.

Board Discusses Improvements At Taggart Stadium

Authorize Installation Of Swinging Platform In New Team Room Recently Built

Authority was issued Wednesday night by the New Castle School Board for the installation of a swinging platform in the new team room at Taggart Stadium, upon which will be erected a drying cage for athletic uniforms. With this work done, the only remaining work to be done will be the installation of the toilet facilities. These drew some comment from board members.

Said A. W. Bauman. "We have spent practically all of the $500 we allocated for the improvement at the stadium. I think we should have some refinite report on what is yet needed to complete the work."

Roy W. Hazen. "I believe we should leave some work for the janitors to do next summer."

A. C. Hyde. "There isn't any reason why we can't leave this work until next summer except that we can get the labor free at the present time. It may cost us more next year."

Hazen. "If we get the labor free there is no point in holding the work up."

"Bauman. "I don't believe there will be any shortage of work for the janitors to do next year. There are plenty of jobs that can be done by them."

Hazen. "We can't continue to spend money in this department without stopping it some where."

Hyde: "This work will save us money. When it is done it will be unnecessary to heat the Franklin school when teams are playing here. In fuel alone we will save the cost of the improvement."

Duff. "It is time we found out just what we have spent and what we are going to spend on such jobs as these. I move that we be furnished a detailed report at the next meeting showing just what we have spent, and just what we will be expected to spend."

BEER CONSUMPTION IS ON INCREASE IN STATE IS REPORTED

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13—Pennsylvanians apparently like their beer more than ever now.

Department of Revenue figures showed today that beer consumption increased 32 per cent in the state during the period from May through November in comparison with last year, before repeal.

During these seven months, beer taxes totaled $4,210,942 as compared with $3,217,643 during the same period in 1933. Reduced to barrels, this means that 114,000 more barrels of "suds" were consumed this year than last during the comparable period.

LEGION OF HONOR MEETS WEDNESDAY

Discussion of a number of projects took place at the semi-monthly meeting of the Legion of Honor of the Valley of New Castle Consistory, in their rooms in the Cathedral last evening.

Plans were outlined for the dance to be held Friday evening when the girls who sold popples for the American Legion, will be entertained by the Legion post.

Plans were also announced for an entertainment and feed at the next meeting, Wednesday evening, December 26.

OIL LEASE WORKER FATALLY INJURED

Electric Lamps Bought By Board

Considerable Discussion Develops At School Board Over $300 Order

Three hundred dollars worth of electric lamps brought out nearly an hour's discussion before the New Castle school board Wednesday night. The argument arose as to the kind of lamp which should be bought, and the dealer from whom it should be purchased.

The school board had advertised for $300 worth of lamps, "G. E. Mazda or equal." A number of electrical dealers put in bids for mazdas both of the G. E. and Westinghouse and two other bids were received for lamps said to be the equal, the Hi-Grade and the Champion, either of which were cheaper than the mazdas.

H. M. Kirk, Jr., representing the Kirk-Hutton company, appeared before the board and said his firm was offering Hi-Grade lamps at a discount of 28 per cent off on case lots, as against 23 per cent off on mazdas. "The Hi-Grade lamp is made in Emporium, Pa., said Mr. Kirk, "is made under General Electric patents, and has been certified by the United States Bureau of Standards as being the equal of other mazdas both in the life of the lamp and light diffused. The state government at Harrisburg uses them, and the Pittsburgh school board has used them for two years."

Said J. H. McIlvenny: "We advertised for lamp bids and find most of the bids to be identical. If that isn't combination in restraint of trade what is it? I think we should buy these cheaper lamps to give these mazda dealers a lesson. The Champion lamps are sold by the Huston Hardware company and are also made under G. E. patents."

Duff: "I think we should take the mazda bids and put them in a hat and then draw out the winner. I'll move it."

There was no second to the motion and Roy W. Hazen moved the purchase of Hi-Grade from the Kirk-Hutton company. "We save $15 on $300 worth of lamps," said Mr. Hazen, "and apparently the lamps are all right."

The vote being called on the motion resulted in a four-four tie. Cleland, Hazen, Thomas and Cramer voted yes, and Bauman, Duff, Hyde and McIlvenny voted no.

A. W. Bauman then moved to award the bid to the Huston Hardware company at its bid of 33 per cent off on case lots and 23 per cent on broken lots. There was no second to this motion.

Hyde: "I move we lay the bids on the table."

Solicitor William J. Moffatt ruled against this and the discussion continued.

Hyde: "I am like McIlvenny. These lamp manufacturers have a code that has been in existence long before the NRA. Their prices are all the same."

Bauman: "Why not put all the names in the hat and draw?"

No one favored that idea either.

Finally Dr. W. L. Cleland moved the purchase of the lamps from J. P. Merrillee at his bid of 25 per cent off on case lots as against 23 per cent off on case lots from the other dealers. On this vote everybody voted yes but McIlvenny.

The bid was awarded to J. P. Merrillee.

Holiday Hours Of Stores Changed

Local Merchants Move Up Opening Date One Day At Meeting This Morning

At a meeting of the retail merchants division of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, which took place this morning in the board of directors room of the Chamber of Commerce, decision was made to move up the holiday hours of the merchants one day.

Starting on Wednesday evening, December 19, the merchants affiliated with the retail merchants division will maintain hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

It is stated that some of the chain store groups have received orders from their home officers to start their Christmas hours on Monday, December 17.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Dinner Meeting Wednesday Night

Christmas Party Enjoyed By B. Of R. T. Ladies; Other News Of Ward

A delightful Christmas party, commencing with dinner at 6 o'clock and including a business meeting during which new officers were elected, interested a crowd of 30 Mabel Wilson Auxiliary members Wednesday evening in Eagle's hall, South Jefferson street.

Dinner was served on a table centered by a prettily decorated Christmas tree, surrounded by poinsettias and red tapers. Girls were exchanged within the group and the social period, spent informally proved most enjoyable.

New lodge officers are:

President, Mrs. William Sapper; vice president, Mrs. William Baltes; secretary, Mrs. E. M. Johnston; treasurer, Mrs. George Fisher; conductress, Mrs. Jack Doone; chaplain, Mrs. Viola Evans; warden, Mrs. William Campbell; inner guard, Gladys Taylor Hackett; outer guard, Mrs. John Deck; pianist, Mrs. William Ellgass; and delegate, Mrs. E. M. Johnston.

A point installation of officers will take place with the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen No. 955 next Wednesday night in Eagle's hall. The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be on Wednesday night, December 26.

RE-ELECT OFFICERS

At a gathering of Ladies Aid Society members, of the Madison Avenue Christian church, Wednesday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. W. W. Wald, West Clayton street, the following officers were re-elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. J. W. Jones; vice president, Mrs. Adda Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. H. O. Spurrier; secretary, Mrs. C. J. Bernhart; and assistant treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Clark.

A social period was held and a tasty luncheon was served by Mrs. Wald, Mrs. A. S. Eberhart and Mrs. Frank Rheinhart.

The January meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. W. I. McCartney, West Clayton street.

COUNTING DAYS

Youngsters of the Crawford-Oakridge children's home are happily looking forward to the day of all days, Christmas. Most of them have already definite ideas about what they want from Santa Claus, things ranging from fire engines to high top shoes.

A number of Christmas events are scheduled to take place at the home. One treat will come from the Quota club as has been the annual custom of that organization.

HYDRANT FROZEN

Jack Frost nipped one of the North Cedar street fire hydrants a little too hard Wednesday. It was necessary for city workmen to build a fire at its base and thaw it out.

LEAK IN MAIN

Water company employes made an excavation Wednesday on East Cherry street at North Cedar in order to repair a leak in a water main which was reported some time ago.

Local Residents Are In Accident

Mr. And Mrs. J. M. Frew, North Cedar Street, In Crash Near Slippery Rock

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Frew of 609 North Cedar street fortunately escaped serious injury in an automobile accident Tuesday afternoon on the Slippery Rock-Mercer road.

Mr. Frew was not hurt but Mrs. Frew received severe bruises as did her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Horsman of Slippery Rock, passengers in the Frew car. Mr. Horsman, in addition, received a fracture of a rib.

The crash occurred when the automobile driven by Mr. Frew and a light truck driven by C. A. Johnson of Slippery Rock collided. The Frew car went out of control, crashed into a ditch and turned over completely, landing on its wheels in a field. State Highway Patrolman H. A. Stephens investigated the accident.

PAY CHECKS OUT

B. & O. pay checks were released Tuesday of this week and Pennsy checks were out last Saturday.

INSTALL OFFICERS

Installation of new officers took place at Wednesday afternoon's meeting of Penna-Bo Auxiliary to the B. of L. F. and E. in the city building. The meeting was well attended.

A meeting of the Kard Klub of the organization will take place next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Powers, Mt. Jackson road.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

I. D. Wagner of North Cedar street is ill at his home with pneumonia.

Ben Butts and son Milton of West Cherry street have returned home after a hunting trip in the big game counties.

Mrs. J. A. Waddell of North Liberty street and Mrs. Harry Wylie of West Madison avenue are spending today in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. William Ellgass of New Castle, who was seriously hurt in an automobile accident in New Jersey some time ago, has returned to her home from a New Jersey hospital and was able to attend a meeting of Mabel Wilson lodge Wednesday night.

Eileen Knight, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knight, former residents of seventh ward, is undergoing treatment in a Cleveland, O., hospital for a serious kidney condition. The Knight family are residents of Cleveland. They have relatives and friends here.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Joseph Morotti of 813 DuShane street, who was injured by a crank from a dump truck on Wednesday morning, is reported showing a slight improvement this morning in the New Castle hospital.

Finds Vaccine Against Dreaded Child Paralysis

Temple University Professor Discovers Remedy To Prevent Disease

EXPERIMENTS HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—Another great stride in science's war against disease was written into the medical records following Dr. John A. Kolmer's official announcement of the success of his vaccine to prevent infantile paralysis.

"I feel this vaccine is now ready for combatting epidemics of acute anterior poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis), under control of well-conducted clinics."

Thus did Dr. Kolmer, professor of experimental medicine at Temple University, quietly announce his conclusions to the staff of Temple University hospital after reviewing his months of work in inoculating 25 patients, ranging in age from 18 months to 25 years.

After telling of his long research work which led to successful experiments with monkeys, Dr. Kolmer told of his progress with human "guinea pigs," modestly neglecting to mention that he was the first adult person to be inoculated. His two sons, Daniel, 11, and John, 15, were the first children injected with the vaccine.

How long the immunization which he has developed will last, Dr. Kolmer could not say. Monkeys immunized a year ago, however, are still immune when inoculated with disease-giving quantities of live virus.

TWO UNIQUE WOMEN

(International News Service)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Col. Roscoe Turner gained world-wide fame during the recent London-to-Melbourne air races. His wife has a claim to fame also, she explained here on her way to Hollywood from London with Miss Gladys Lyon.

"We have the distinction of being the only American girls who have ever visited England who do not claim to have been asked to dance by the Prince of Wales," she said.

On Court House Hill

County Treasurer William O. Pitts says that he has received scores of telephone calls asking him if there is an open season for killing does. There is not.

A court house official says that suspenders will be unpopular with legislators at the coming session. "The law makers," says he, "will wear belts—to hold up the state waste.

Indications are that the sheriff sale list for January will be almost as large as it was this month. Delinquent taxes seem to be the principal urge for foreclosures. Many mortgage holders would be satisfied to let the interest ride, but when the taxes are not paid they are constantly gnawing at the equity, if any, in the property upon which they are placed.

Union township engineers and attorneys who are looking up the ownerships of property to be affected by the proposed sewer system, have abo completed their work. Petitions are now being circulated among property owners who will agree to meet their share of expense, which is for the material only, as the labor will be provided by RWD workers. A movement has also been started by the residents of Oakland, another section of Union township, which is badly in need of a sewer system. It is hoped that it can be worked out on the same favorable terms as have been accorded the Youngstown hill section.

In the estate of the late Charles C. Robingson, a petition has been presented to court by the administrator, Harvey B. Bush, asking that he be allowed to compromise a mortgage held by Robingson on property of Terressa Cassella in the eighth ward . The mortgage is for $1,171.87, and it is subsequent to a $4000 mortgage, $720 interest on the same and $750 taxes. Bush represents that he has been offered $450 to satisfy his second mortgage, and believes that it would be for the best interests of the state to accept. An order granting him permission to make the settlement was made.

The new trial list which is being prepared for 1935 by Prothonotary R. M. Campbell, as usual will contain a list of the officials of the county and members of the Lawrence county bar. The latter will show 75 attorneys now practicing here. This is the largest list there has ever been.

Persons who have received mortgages from the Home Owners Loan corporation are reminded by John J. Fahey, chairman of he corporation that the government expects them to pay the interest and installment payments on their loans; if they do not, the mortgages will be foreclosed. There seems to be a mistaken idea on the part of some that mortgages can run for three years without interest. There was some such ruling when the project was first launched, but it was later withdrawn. Persons who are unable to meet their interest are now required to take the matter up with the corporation at once, and if there are good reasons, a short extension of time may be secured. The important thing is to keep the corporation fully advised of your circumstances.

County officials are hoping that Santa Claus will bring them a vault in which to store records. Two successive grand juries have said that a vault is needed.

Baruch Outlines Plan For Halting War Profiteering

Federal Control Of Prices And Profits Would Do Away With Evil Of Business

By KINGSBURG SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13— Federal control of prices and profits in time of war was outlined today by Bernard M. Baruch as his plan for taking the profits out of war.

One of the permanent national figures called in by President Roosevelt to discuss methods of eliminating the profit incentive from war, Baruch has long been an advocate of this method of insuring world peace.

Explains Plan

Explaining his plan to International News Service, Mr. Baruch said:

"I would take the profits out of war by putting a ceiling over prices, above which no prices and profits could go.

Thereafter, a tax program should be enacted that would take away in totality, the spread between the selling prices and the costs plus a reasonable return."

Allegheny College Paper May Suspend

Board Of Trustees Order Cigarette Ads Out Of Paper; Revenue Suffers

(International News Service)

MEADVILLE, Pa., Dec. 13.—Its advertising revenue paralysed by Allegheny college's board of trustee's edict prohibiting cigarette advertising, "The Campus," student body organ for more than a half century, faces possible suspension of publication.

Orin R. Hawkins, editor of the six-page journal which has been a part of campus life for 53 years, said:

"The fate of the publication hangs in the balance. The trustee's action cuts our advertising revenue about 90 percent."

He pointed out that of 245 inches of advertising in its last issue, 220 inches consisted of cigarette display. Trustees ordered this type of advertising stopped, at the same time indicating they felt it encouraged co-eds to smoke.

Girls May Smoke

Other members of the student body pointed out that there is no rule against girls smoking in the institution and that there is a smoking room in the largest of the four co-ed dormitories.

Hawkins said he feared costs of publishing the paper could not be met if the trustee's order was not rescinded. He added:

"The advertising we have left is only 10 percent of what we formerly carried every issue. I do not believe we can meet expenses under the new ruling."

Don't Pay Over 25c For Medicine Friday and Saturday

SUFFERERS FROM STOMACH TROUBLE, WEAK KIDNEYS, LAZY LIVER, NERVOUSNESS AND GENERAL RUN-DOWN CONDITION:

Every person who suffers can have a liberal introductory bottle of the World's Newest Medicine to try for 25 CENTS. Simply read the offer below. Do this in your own interest.

This new and scientific medicine, known as Indo-Vin, has helped 87 per cent of the people who have taken it. Therefore, we offer the first introductory bottle at 25 CENTS, because we believe the people who are benefited will keep on using it. The regular fullsize price of this medicine is $1.25.

WHAT IT IS!

Indo-Vin is a new, advanced medical compound of 29 of the Finest Medicinal Herbs, and not one a habit-forming drug. It is taken after meals and mixes with the food in one's stomach, thus throwing off the poisons that foster stomach troubles and permitting the kidneys and liver to function properly. It acts within 10 minutes to stop gas and pains, sourness, bloat and belching. It will not gripe or nauseate you like ordinary liver medicines. It will work the bile from the liver as black as ink. At the same time Indo-Vin drives the poisons from the kidneys and relieves backaches, bladder irritation and weakness. Relieves children from bed-wetting in a few days. Strengthens the nerves by natural means.

Now, whether Indo-Vin will help you as it has thousands of others —whether it will end your suffering in a day or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it for 25 CENTS, only a fraction of actual cost. This introductory offer is good Friday and Saturday ONLY, so read the rest of this announcement and act at once. Do this in fairness to yourself and your family.

WHAT IT WILL DO!

Indo-Vin will cleanse your bowels (gradually—not drastic or severe) as they were NEVER CLEANSED BEFORE.

It will bring out awful gases and impurities (frequently from the first dose) which may have been inside of you a long time, causing you many days of misery with headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions and lazy, drowsy, tired feeling.

Indo-Vin will relieve acid conditions and make the digestive organs sweet and clean and give complete relief from indigestion, bloating, sour stomach, shortness of breath and dyspepsia.

IT WILL give you the greatest appetite you EVER HAD IN YOUR LIFE.

Indo-Vin will act as a diuretic to sluggish kidneys and flush out quantities of impurity that may have become dammed up inside, causing BACKACHE, SHARP PAINS and RISING AT NIGHT.

It will make your liver more active; will clear away old bile deposits, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headache.

G. H. Mosby, Originator of Indo-Vin, who chooses Friday and Saturday to offer his medicine purely on a trial basis at a fraction of its actual cost.

Relieves rheumatism and neuritis, giving quick relief from pain.

IT WILL put a stop to the skin eruptions that are caused by the impurities in the organs, will overcome the sallowness or "muddiness" that is due to sluggish liver and will put the ROSY GLOW OF HEALTH into your cheeks. The unfailing remedy for female complaints.

Indo-Vin will make your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels more active, build you up in general and make you LOOK, ACT and FEEL like a DIFFERENT MAN or WOMAN, years younger than your real age.

To get your first bottle for 25c (Friday and Saturday ONLY) bring coupon to the store below, or send with 25c (stamps or coin) to Indo-Vin, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio, and medicine will be shipped postpaid.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. December 12, three arrests on charges as follows: Drunkenness 3.

Although members of council proposed a meeting for the purpose of considering 1935 appropriations yesterday afternoon some of the councilmen were so busy they deemed it best ot permit the day to expire without an endeavor to compile the budget. They held a preliminary discussion a few days ago and Finance Director Hoyland presented his colleagues with figures and facts after which they went into their individual offices and sharpened their pencils. It has been indicated that some of the directors will fight any move to increase the tax levy which now is 11½ mills.

Indications are the public library trustees are not the only body which would like to acquire the old postoffice, it having been intimated yesterday by Mayor Mayne that the city would like to have it for a city hall. Going back several years it was said at that time the city might be able to get it by paying about $50,000, payable over a course of time. Nothing much was done. Yesterday Councilman Butler bemoaned the condition of the city building and declared that were a fire to destroy the municipal building hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of records (and he spoke only of those in the engineer's office would be destroyed). Mayor Mayne said it would cost the city approximately $30,000 to remodel the old postoffice for city administration purposes and this amount would include the cost of a new jail. The paraphernalia for cells could be moved from the present building. With conditions anywhere normal the present city building ought to bring $175,000 and he intimated that should the city attempt to get the postoffice it might prove economical.

There are five trucks in the service of the department of collection and disposal of garbage and according to Superintendent Howard Phillips three of the five are in good condition. Two of the three are about a year old. The other trucks are not in good condition, Phillips added. When those who remember the old contract system of collecting and disposing of garbage consider the system which is operated by the city today it is scarcely probable that anyone would want to return to the old system and are in favor of maintaining an efficient fleet of trucks for garbage affairs. It is not known if the director of health, D. O. Davies, will ask for any new trucks. There is one thing sure the city's financial condition is such that there are some things that are needed but which the city will not be able to pay.

Fire Chief H. C. Stockman and a force of men tested fire hydrants along East Washington street yesterday. Some of them, it was reported in city hall, were found frozen. They were thawed out. The department of fire officials do not propose to be caught napping with frozen fire hydrants while a fire licks up business property.

STATE TREASURER TAKES ISSUE WITH PINCHOT

Says State Is Facing Deficit

Waters Presents His Resume Of Condition Of State's Finances

BEHIND IN PAYING PREFERRED CLAIMS

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13.—Declaring Pennsylvania faces a budget deficit of $18,000,000 or more in the present biennium, state treasurer Charles A. Waters today took sharp issue with Gov. Gifford Pinchot on the question of state finances.

"We are badly in the red financially," Waters said.

"To all practical purposes we have quit paying non-preferred claims such as subsidies to hospitals and institutions.

"We are $8,000,000 behind in paying preferred claims right now because of lack of money."

The picture Waters painted of the State's finances was opposed to that of Governor Pinchot who said Monday that if all estimated revenues are collected there will be an unexpended balance of about $5,000,000 at the end of the biennium, May 31, 1935.

Waters Not Hopeful

Waters held out little hope that of the non-preferred appropriations totaling $9,500,000 for the remainder of the biennium would be met. In addition to hospitals and institutions, non-preferred claims include subsidies to state-aided colleges, mothers' assistance funds and county care of the insane.

Appropriation liabilitiies through next May, Waters said, total $54,500,000 exclusive of unspent funds from the $20,000,000 relief allocation made at the 1934 special session and of relief funds to carry the state from February through May.

Against this liability, he pointed out, is the $1,000,000 by which the constitution allows the state to go into debt, a maximum of $3,000,000 in appropriataion lapses, money unspent at the end of the biennium, and $2,000,000 owed the general fund by the liquor board.

Not To Return Liquor Loan

Treasury officials do not expect the return of the loan to the liquor board, and discounting it have set the appropriation liability to be met from receipts at $50,500,000. Against this liability, revenue collections for the last comparable period totaled $32,500,000, Waters said.

"On its face then, it appears as if the general fund will be $18,000,000 short of meeting appropriations", Waters said, "without taking into consideration the fact that collections are running less than last year, which would increase the deficit materially."

"Our immediate problem now, however, is to decide between paying miscellaneous operating bills and public school subsidies."

Miscellaneous bills lying unpaid in the treasury amount to about $2,500,000 and past due school subsidies total $5,500,000. The bills are being met and school districts in "pressing need" are being paid as rapidly as funds become available, Waters said.

Supervisors To Meet At Mercer

Annual Sessions On Friday—Numerous Addresses Will Be Heard

(Special to The News)

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 13.—Mercer county supervisors and township auditors will hold their annual convention in the county court house next Friday. Both morning and afternoon sessions have been arranged. The convention will open at 10 a. m. and the afternoon session at 1 o'clock.

The address of welcome will be made by Professor William M. Johnston and the response by LeRoy Hildebrand.

The afternoon session will be featured with addresses by representatives of the state department of highways and the state association supervisors and auditors, and brief talks by Glenn R. Law, Major W. G. Smith and L. Norman Dilley, recently elected senator and assemblymen.

Present officers of the county association are: President, Hugh M. Gilky, West Middlesex; first vice president, J. A. Minich, New Wilmington; second vice president, R. E. Kerr, Sandy Lake; secretary-treasurer, George H. Heile, Transfer; resolutions committee, Harry Hulse, H. C. Burns, Lawrence Wilhelm, Florence Foster and W. E. Rickert.

ACCORDING to solemn agreement, made between "gallant allies," which the British called themselves and us, the United States should receive from Great Britain next Saturday the sum of three hundred and sixty million dollars.

Another considerable sum on account of "war debts of honor" is due from France. Will these amounts be paid to maintain, spotless, the honor of nations that borrowed in their trouble?

They will not be paid, nothing will be paid. Three hundred and sixty millions of dollars are more important than "spotless honor."

TO THE announcement that she would pay nothing, Great Britain frankly adds that "it would be useless, and therefore unwise," even to attempt negotiations.

Little Finland on the contrary, announces her intention to pay the Saturday instalment. Napoleon called England "a nation of shopkeepers," which annoyed the English, make it a habit to pay their debts in order to keep their credit.

ON BOTH sides of the Atlantic attempts are made to discourage murder.

President Roosevelt takes the lead here, summoning all forces of the nation, state, national and local, to fight private crime, banditry, traffic in narcotics, lynchings, kidnaping, plain ordinary murder.

Private crime worries us here.

ACROSS THE ocean the League of Nations exhorts all Europe to fight "terrorism," the kind of murder that attacks public characters, as in the recent instance of King Alexander, Louis Barithou, the French statesman, and the more recent murder in Russia of Stalin's valued assistant, Kirov.

Europe's murderers kill for political reasons. Political hatred overcomes fear of death, of which Bacon truly remarks:

"Revenge triumphs over death; love slights it; honor aspireth to it; grief flieth to it."

In this more practical land, men kill, rob and kidnap for profit. They are not indifferent to death.

A sufficiently large graveyard of criminals with fresh new mounds would do much to discourage the American crime industry.

LADIES WITH dark hair, finding blonde hairs on their husband's coats, and vice versa, appear in divorce cases, complaining.

A Philadelphia lady, daughter of a Venezuelan secretary of state, has something more substantial than a yellow or black hair to offer the court.

When her husband, returning from an all-night party, undressed, his distressed wife perceived "tooth marks on his shoulder." She knew she could identify the lady whose teeth would fit those marks.

The case was further complicated by the indignant statement that the "tooth marks" are marks of guilty affection on the part of the lady whose teeth would fit the bites. There is a moving picture, or something, in that news story.

A LADY from Berlin with the long name Baroness Eloisa de Bosquet von Wagner Wehrborn, tired of civilization, sailed away to the Galapagos Islands, where, free from civilized restraints, clothes included if she chose, she associated on terms of superiority with various men.

Two of them, at intervals, sometimes two or three times a week, fought for her favors "with hands, clubs and rocks." They had no modern weapons.

As they fought, "the European noblewoman stood by and goaded them on." Finally, one man, beaten too often, yielded the prize to his rival. The latter and the boroness thereupon sailed away to another Galapagos island.

It is a strange mixture of the old cave days and the modern "owl and pussycat" that went to sea in a beautiful pea-green boat.

ONE INSTALLMENT of bootleg liquor recently killed 18 men. Many invite disaster by drinking poisonous alcoholic products that destroy health more slowly. Of three bottles of alcoholic drinks sold in the United States now, two are "bootleg" products.

It is well to adhere to this rule, during the holiday season and always.

But only brands that you know and from merchants in whom you have confidence.

NEW YORK spent yesterday "seeing its breath" at 12 above zero. Called "cold" that temperature really represents more than 400 degrees of heat. Real cold or absolute zero," total absence of heat, would take you more than 400 degrees below zero.

Everything is comparative. Twelve degrees above is comfortable for normal men in good health with good blood, too cold for the old and for young children.

TWO LIFE convicts have earned freedom by submitting to medical experiment, with "tuberculosis vaccine," or preventive. The "preventive" with which the doctors have experimented on Carl Edicson and Mike Schmidt for months past is not a tuberculosis cure. It prevents those inoculated from contracting tuberculosis, as ordinary vaccination prevents contracting smallpox.

Doctors of the National Jewish Hospital who have worked on the new serum for fifteen years past, warned the convicts that they would risk their lives in the experiment, now proved successful.

Both chose loss of life with possible recovery of liberty as the reward. Both, serving life terms, will be freed.

Brick Is Hurled Through Window

(Special to The News)

GROVE CITY, Dec. 13.—Local and county police are investigating a robbery, staged early Wednesday morning, when a valuable watch was taken from the display window of the Griffith jewelry store, in the heart of the business section. A brick was hurled through the glass store door, enabling the robber to enter. Only the watch was taken, Mr. Griffith believes, and more valuable articles in the window were overlooked.

The robbery is believed to be an aftermath of a similar attempt at Mr. Griffith's home, a week ago, when an overcoat was taken. Police believe that on this occasion the robber was seeking the key to the jewelry store.

Coal And Iron Police Program Being Studied

Governor Pinchot Appoints Commission To Make Study Of Twin Policing Systems

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Dec. 13.—A four-plank legislative program for outlawing the coal and iron police and privately-paid deputy sheriffs was recommended today to Gov. Gifford Pinchot by a commission he named to make a study of these twin policing systems.

The report, based on a long study of the activities of coal and iron police and privately paid deputy sheriffs, made these recommendations:

1. Legislative prohibiting any private person or corporation from paying directly or indirectly the salaries of deputy sheriffs or the costs of their uniforms or equipment.

2. Legislation providing that deputy sheriffs shall be selected only by the sheriff with approval of the county commissioners, with pay and mileage fixed by the commissioners and paid with county funds.

3. Repeal of the industrial police act of 1929.

4. Legislation authorizing the governor to place the state police in charge of all serious industrial disturbances, the police power to supersede all other peace officers and in return the county to be relieved of liability for injuries caused by mob violence.

The commission, headed by Francis Biddle, Philadelphia attorney recently named chairman of the national labor relations board, was appointed by Governor Pinchot as a result of last year's coal and steel riots in Fayette and Beaver counties.

SCHOOL RADIATORS WILL BE COVERED

Upon motion of A. C. Hyde, the school board Wednesday night authorized the installation of radiator hoods and shields on six radiators in the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school. The decorative project in the auditorium is about finished and when completely finished it will be the handsomest auditorium in the city. Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds S. G. Ligo, said the heat and dust would mar the walls unless shields were provided and these will be put on.

Miss Hughes Named To Play Lead Role

Former Local Girl Honored At Grove City College; McBride In Play

A former New Castle girl, Miss Marian Hughes, now a freshman at Grove City College, will play a lead role in the three-act play, "A Bill of Divorcement," which the college's Crimson Masque will present tonight and Friday night at the campus hall. Freshmen seldom are chosen for the lead parts.

Miss Hughes, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leroy Hughes, of Pittsburgh, plays the part of Mrs. Hilary Fairfield.

A New Castle student, David McBride, plays the role of Kit Pumphrey in the play.

The production is under the direction of Joseph Ketler, veteran actor of old stage days.

TO REMOVE LAST ROW OF SEATS IN SCHOOL BALCONY

When the rejuvenated Benjamin Franklin Junior high school auditorium is reopened for use after its new coat of paint and decoration, the back row of seats in the balcony will be missing. At the meeting of the school board Wednesday night, A. C. Hyde brought out the fact that the last row was up against the wall and that people sitting in these seats had a habit of leaning back against the painted wall, soiling it. Inasmuch as the seats were taken out for the painting project, they will be left out. Along with the other seats they will be painted, but will be stored for future use.

Francis Says City Ready For Growth

Addressing the Phalanx fraternity last night on "New Castle's Potentialities," William A. Francis, motor car dealer, declared that the opportunity for New Castle to grow has come. He presented a challenge to "buy, bank and build in New Castle."

The fraternity, meeting at the Y. M. C. A., transacted regular business and made plans for its annual Christmas treat for boys of its Scioto district clubs.

New Ladder Clue Points to Hauptmann

Police have former residence of Bruno Richard Hauptmann (right) under strong guard, since discovery that wood used to patch ladder found at window of Charles A. Lindbergh residence the night of the kidnaping, matches up with piece in attic of Hauptmann home that had been sawed away. The identification was made by Arthur Koehler, U. S. Forestry Service expert, who is shown with ladder. Detectives are seen looking in Hauptmann closet before they found carefully concealed trap door leading into attic, indicated by arrow below. (Central Press)

225 Years of Flying Machines Told in Pictures on Wright Anniversary

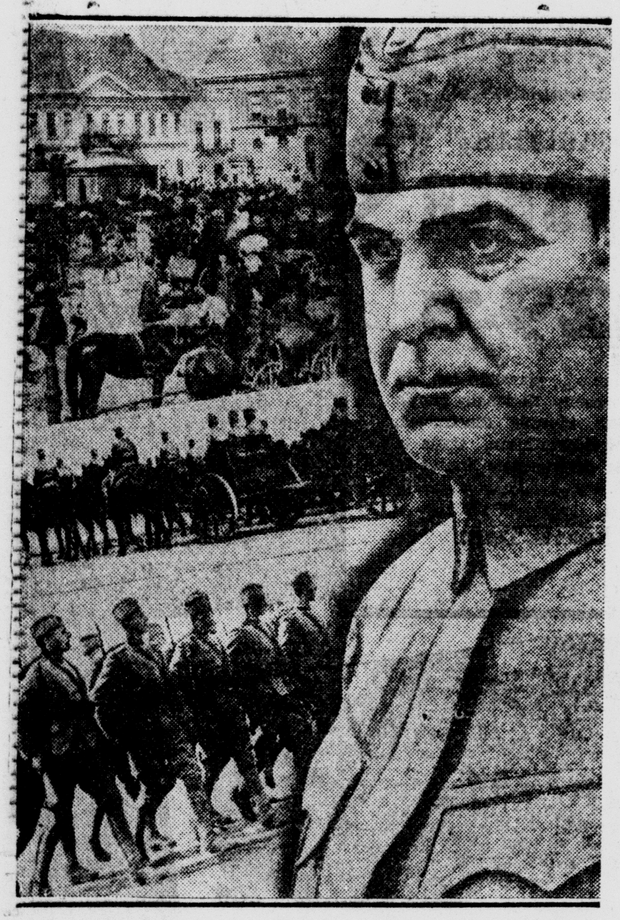
Starts European Conflict



Dr. Ante Pavelich (right), exiled chieftain of the Yugoslavian terrorist organization held responsible for the assassination of King Alexander in France, is now blamed for setting Yugoslav troops marching against Hungary. Yugoslav government accuses Hungary of harboring and aiding Pavelich and other plotters. Pavelich fled to Italy, which refused extradition requests of France. Photos at left show Szeged, Hungary, where Yugoslav forces concentrated, and latter on the march. (Central Press)

Jade Green, White

Jade green and white blister crepe are used for this dinner gown. It has a short overtunic in white with trimming of green. Wound rings of green are used at the neck, on the sleeves and at the hemline. An Oriental collar is an interesting part of the dress.

THREE LIBERALS STUDY AUTO CODE

Three liberal economists are conducting the administration's survey with a view to changing automobile employment from a seasonal to an all-year-round basis before the 90-day extension of the auto code expires on Feb. 1. The investigation is in the hands of Leon Henderson, ex-officio member of the NRA board; Dr. Isidor Lubin, head of the bureau of labor statistics, and Richard H. Lansburgh, secretary of labor in Pennsylvania.

Settling Controversy Over Saar Rule

Agreement between France and Germany concerning payment for rich Saar mines now held by French has made job of the Saar plebiscite commission named by League of Nations easier. They'll supervise vote in January by which the Saar Basin is expected to restore itself to Germany. Left to right: Commissioners Rodhe of Sweden, DeJongh of Holland, Sarah Wambaugh of U. S., and Count de Pourtales of Switzerland.

Arthur G. Wilson, 29, dapper Cleveland chemist now on trial for his life at El Paso, Tex., here seems to be more concerned with reading newspaper accounts of his trial than with proceedings in courtroom. He is charged with killing Mrs. Irene de Bolt. (Central Press)

Training Of Home Children Has Proven Good

Records Reveal That Every Child From Margaret Henry Home Has Made Good

OUTSTANDING EXAMPLES CITED

That the Margaret Henry Home has been one of the most worthwhile institutions of this community for the past 30 years, is proven by the records of the children who have made their way into the world after they have received their early training at this institution.

Not a single instance has occurred in which a child from the Margaret Henry Home has been before the local court, or any other, the officials of the home state, and point to the record with considerable pride.

Cite Recent Case.

In addition to this, however, may be mentioned the fact that some of them have been so inspired by the training they have received while they resided in the home that they have gone out into the world and made good on their own initiative.

One recent case is cited where one of the girls, after graduating from high school, took a business course, and after working here went to Harrisburg, where she was employed in one of the state offices for a time, later securing a splendid position with one of the largest life insurance companies in this country.

While employed in the New Jersey office of this company she met and married a man who holds the position of sales manager for the New Jersey district of one of the largest industries in the United States.

Many other similar instances can be cited by the officials of the home, but it is sufficient to say that the Margaret Henry Home has turned out the best of citizens, young men and young women who have become the backbone of this community and of others, to which they have gone in later life.

Because of this fact, the officials of the home have no hesitancy in approaching residents of this community in the interests of the coming membership campaign, which will be inaugurated on Friday evening with a dinner in the Elks club. Roger W. Rowland, general chairman, will preside, and the workers will plan their membership effort to be carried out during the coming week.

Police To Have Christmas Tree

Plans Afoot For Bluecoats To Erect Tree In Police Courtroom

Christmas cheer already is beginning to permeate the city building and by the time Santa Claus is ready to slide down the city hall chimmey there will be a Christmas tree in the police station— and according to plans it will not only be illuminated with vari-colored bulbs but it may be a place upon which presents can be suspended.

The tree has not yet been secured but it is probable that during the next few days a tree probably six feet tall and with thick and numerous limbs will have been placed in the courtroom.

The department of police members are bubbling o'er with the Christmas spirit and they hope to make the tree one of the nicest possible.

When they embark on any move their past events have shown success.

Dew does not fall. Dew is formed on the ground. The warmer air comes in contact with the cooler vegetation on the ground, which causes the moisture in the air to condense on the cooler surface.

Highway Patrolmen Protect Motorists

Members Of Local Station Keep Eye On Valuable Trucks

Due to the fact that the holiday season has arrived and motor traffic has increased, local members of the state Highway patrol are riding all of the roads in Lawrence county, not only giving protection to trucks carrying valuable contents but also protecting motorists and wherever possible aiding them if mechanicism of automobiles should become affected.

Owing to the proximity of the state line the local station has become one of the most important in patrol circles and the men detailed here are considered equal to any in the highway patrol of Pennsylvania.

Recently a change in system occurred and they now make patrols along the various roads, imporved or not improved at different hours—and they may be seen at 9 a. m., 3 p. m., 10 p. m. or 3 a. m. or 5 a. m. —according to when orders are given to ride roads.

In case of accident the motor highway patrol always responds and in case of depredation they also render assistance and have full authority to cope with any situation that may arise. There are five men on duty here, 24 hours a day.

Promises Ample Holiday Cars

Superintendent Moore Looking Forward To Providing Good Service

"There will be ample street car service for the holiday shoppers" said Thomas C. Moore, superintendent of the local street railway today when askked if the company proposed to place extra cars in service from now until Christmas.

"You can rest assured that the New Castle Street Electric Railway Company will provide ample service for the shoppers" Moore declared. "Should the rush become such that extra cars are required they will be furnished. We are here to serve the public efficiently and courteously."

Fire Hydrants Found Frozen

Investigation Made By Fire Chief Discloses A Number Of Frozen Plugs

Investigation of fire hydrants about the city by Chief H. Clare Stockman, revealed several frozen up and others leaking and in bad condition.

Work of thawing out the frozen hydrants has been started and those which were found to be leaking at the valve inside the hydrants are being repaired by the water company, which is charged with the maintenance of the fire hydrants.

It has been found in past instances that where fire hydrants have been used by other interests than the fire department, that they have not been shut off tightly and allowed to drain. When severe cold weather sets in, the hydrants often freeze up from this cause.

Some hydrants which were found to be frozen up or leaking during the investigation, were as follows:

East Washington street at Victor Theater, East and Neshannock, Neshannock avenue at Lockley apartments, Highland and Euclid, Cedar street at Box Company, East and Falls streets, Grant and Jefferson streets, and West North and Sankey streets.

Troopers Establish Sharp Rural Guard

Trooper In Charge Knutsen And Fellow Officers Make Patrols

State Troopers Knutsen, Engle and McCullough are making morning, afternoon and night patrols through different sections of Lawrence county in the belief that one pound of prevention is worth several pounds of cure.

They hope to keep down as many depredations as possible and said today that reports of poultry thefts from rural sections have not been made recently.

"Have you received any reports of poultry thefts recently" Officer-in-charge Knutsen was asked today.

"No" the trooper responded.

And then it became known that the troopers on duty here are making patrols, at different hours and along routes known in advance only by themselves.

Annually during the days before Thanksgiving and Christmas the troopers inaugurated a system of several patrols each day, and they are apt to turn up anywhere at anytime.

The State troopers on duty here are on their toes, ready to serve the public and regardless of weather or hours, ready to serve the public.

Musical Drama To Be Presented

The Dramatic Musical Company, Vincent Delle Fave, director, will present a musical drama in 3 acts, entitled "Femmena 'E Niente-E Amico Traditore" at Umberto Primo Hall, 110 East Division street, under the auspices of Societa' Umberto Primo, on Friday, December 14, 8:15 p. m.

This drama will be one of the finest Italian stories ever presented on the stage. There are several beautiful old and new songs embodied in the play.

In addition to the drama, there will be several acts of vaudeville with a group of novelty dancers stars and brilliant comedy will close the program.

The meeting is expected to be largely attended, the council being one of the largest and strongest in the state.

Neighborhood House Directors' Meeting

Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Greer, North Jefferson street, the board of directors of the Neighborhood House met in monthly session.

The finance committee made a report of donations given for the support of the spiritual work at the mission.

Misses Anne Aiken and Laura Marquis reported that the library at the Neighborhood House is in need of replenishment, and would be most grateful for any donations of books suitable for boys and girls. The children have read all the books in the library several times.

Miss Christine Butler, the welfare worker, reported that two new classes were started the past week, the English class for women, which meets three times a week with Mrs. Cleo Tinsman as the teacher, and the embroidery circle for the older girls. Other classes for boys and girls, including the Bible classes, have been functioning for some time.

Miss Butler made 46 calls during the month and exchanged 233 books; she also reported that Miss Mary Riffer and Mrs. H. C. Stillings had given a number of books.

THUG WHO TORTURED FARMER CONVICTED

BEAVER, Pa., Dec. 13.—A jury yesterday condicted Thomas Walsh, 35, as one of the robbers who stole the $1,200 in life savings of Thomas Farmer at his rural home last September after torturing three members of his family.

Two companions, Andrew Berger, 19, and George Loiselle, 33, pleaded guilty two months ago and are serving terms of from 10 to 20 years. Both men were called as witnesses against Walsh, but testified they were unable to remember whether he was with them.

St. Michaels, Baptists And Lutherans Win

Three Good Games In Young Men's Sunday School League Wednesday Night

Three interesting games were played in the Young Men's Sunday School league at the Y. M. C. A. floor last night. The first game found the First Baptists too strong for the Third U. P. with a 25 to 18 triumph.

The second game went to the St. Johns Lutherans over the fast Mahoning Presbyterian team 26 to 22. The third game went to the strong St. Michaels team 19 to 14 over the First Christians.

Jim Thorpe, as halfback on the Carlisle Indian football team in 1912, scored 198 points . . . . It is reported that the Chicago Cubs recently bid $375,000 for Dizzy and Daffy Dean . . . . Charley Berry, Athletic catcher, was on his way to Japan when he was stricken with appendicitis and had to be operated on in North Dakota. Eight days after his appendix had been removed he went on a hunting expedition.

In 1933, Georgetown scored 20 points in the last quarter to tie Manhattan, 20 to 20 . . . . The Cleveland Indians topped the major leagues in distance traveled during the 1934 season when they covered over 12,500 miles . . . . The highest price ever paid against a winner in the Kentucky Derby was $91.45 for $1 on Donerail in 1913 . . . . If you wondered why Notre Dame athletic teams are known as the Irish, you might be interested in knowing that 15 Murphys have won athletic monograms at the school . . . . According to Pop Warner, Tommy Davies of Pitt and Dick Hyland of Stanford were the fastest halfbacks he has ever coached . . . . For ability to instill the spirit into a football team Howard Jones of Southern California believes Bob Zuppke, Pop Warner, Jimmy Crowley, Harry Kipke, Noble Kizer, and Wallace Wade are among the best.

GERSON BASKETBALL TEAM REORGANIZED

Jack Gerson is going to sponsor another basketball team this winter. The Gersons last year won the Independent championship of Lawrence County and participated in many tourneys.

The following will be with the Gersons this year: Jim Vondereau, Bus Reiber, Rus Battley, Jimmie Shaffer, Tom Hutchison, Dutch Huff, Johnny Teplica, Jimmie Travers, Paul Eagan, Bill McIvor. For games with the Gersons call 4595 and ask for Paul Eagan, or write to James Travers, Wilmington avenue, New Castle, Pa.

Sacred Hearts And St. Michaels Ready To Battle

One Of Best Floor Games Of Year Will Be Played At "Y" Friday Night

One of the best basketball games of the current season will be played at the "Y" floor Friday night when the St. Michaels, coached by the well known local sportsman Michael "Jake" Babovsky, will tangle with the Sacred Hearts in a Church League tilt. First place in the league will be at stake as the two teams battle.

There is considerable rivalry between these two teams and a red-hot engagement is looked for. This will be the final game on the three-game bill Friday night.

The first game finds the Epworth M. E. and First M. E. teams tangling and the second game finds the First Christians and Tifereth Israel team opposing each other.

East Brook Will Play At Shenango

County League Game Friday Night Will Find Old Rivals Tangling

East Brook High Schools boys and girls basketball teams will play at Shenango High Friday night, it was announced today by Howard Kimmel. Last year the East Brookians upset the Raneymen and hope to turn the trick again this year.

The only two sure starters in the East Brook lineup for Friday night will be Waddington and Newman, with Kendall also sure to see action. This is a Lawrence County Class A High School league game and a real battle is looked for. The East Brook girls have been undefeated to date and hope to defeat Shenango.

NATIONAL PANTS TEAM IS READY

National Pants basketball team is ready to open the Industrial-House league season, and will hold a practice session at the "Y" Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. The league will open one week from Saturday.

Manager Ralph Phillips of the National Pants team would like to hear from the following teams for games, Ellwood Friscos, Humbert First, Wampum Indies, Polish Falcons, Tigers, St. Michaels, Sacred Hearts, Unions, Saks, and Perelmans. Call Phillips at 927-J.

POLISH FALCONS TO PLAY TONIGHT

To night at the Polish Falcons hall the Polish Falcons under the leadership of Coach Tony Ostrosky will play the fast Mahoning Presbyterian team of the Sunday School league. The Falcons have won five straight games and hope to make it six tonight. The Falcon Reserves will play the preliminary game which starts at 7 o'clock.

MARS WINS GAME

Mars high, of Section 18, of the W. P. I. A. L., opened the preseason schedule of games at the Mars high floor by taking the measure of Penn Township five, 19 to 13. Johnson was the star performer.

Southeast of the city of Mexico stands Popocatepetl, called by the Aztecs "smoking mountain". The volcano rises in the form of a cone, 17,520 feet above sea level, and is composed chiefly of porphyritic obsidian.

BEGIN RED SOX REORGANIZATION

Joe Cronin — Eddie Collins

First steps in reorganizing the Boston Red Sox are taken as Joe Cronin, left, new manager of the club, confers with Eddie Collins, general manager, at the Fenway park offices in Boston. The need for a new pitcher and second baseman was considered.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Although there has been six day bike races since Hector was a pup there's a thrill and a spill in every race but the last grind at Madison Square Garden, New York City, was featured not only by the spills and thrills but odd prizes, exclusive of the racers average pay of $100, a day. During the boom days premiums of $100 to the winner of a sprint were common. This year $50 was the highest cash prize offered by a spectator, and even "sawbucks" were none too plentiful. Other freak prizes, however, kept the riders hustling. Here are some of the awards offered by the spectators, a $10 hat, ton of coal, fountain pen, theater tickets, free dinner for the rider and his family, silk pajamas, turkey dinner, a dozen live lobsters and a bus ticket to Buffalo. A motor mechanic offered to reline the brakes of the winner should the latter own an auto.

And now that State authorities propose to and probably are investigating the Walkathons which have registered a ten-strike not only in Pennsylvania but also in other states it is recalled that when the walkathon was arriving in fame a promotor endeavored to get sanction to run one here. He wanted to rent the Castle Bowl. Mavor Mayne remarked that he would not permit it and the promotor took the walkathon elsewhere.

News dispatches received here a week or more ago reported the death of Al Friedman, heavyweight of Boston (but who was managed by Al Lippe of Philadelphia and helped to publicize that city) following injuries sustained by being struck by an auto in Hollywood. Al was a mighty fine fellow. Everytime he fought here he made friends. He boxed Emmett Rocco and every time he entered the ring drew at least $$1,000 for himself.

Promoters are hopeful of matching Paul Pirrone with Teddy Yarosz for the middleweight championship of the world. Our opinion is that Mr. Yarosz will be returned the winner if they box again. Although Paul has won 16 consecutive fights and is known chiefly as a puncher he can box when he wants to and he knows all of the tricks in the game. But Ted is too fast for the Clevelander who is back in the money after once facing oblivion.

To Tex Richards of Agnew street goes the laurels for having witnessed many football contests in one season. During the season just ended, Mr. Richards, himself an independent gridder, saw 63 tilts. He saw some of the leading college elevens in the country. Joseph Biondi, of Los Angles, a former New Castle resident, was a spectator at 56 games, this season.

Baseball moguls in meeting yesterday at New York City decided to permit each National league club play seven night games and their thoughts ran sentimental as is seen in the announcement that life-time passes have been ordered for all retired baseball players.

Notre Dame is not a member of the Big Ten but observes all the conference rules. As a result Johnny Robinson, Notre Dame's star center has finished his football career. He played one season on the B team which participated in an intercollegiate schedule in 1931. He played on the varsity in 1934 and 1935.

It looks very much as though Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion will participate in no more bouts as a referee, he having buried the gloves with which he knocked out Jess Willard to win the title on July 14, 1919, in the cornerstone of the tavern Dempsey is building across from Madison Square garden in New York City.

Champion Max Baer is original in addition to being a lethal puncher. He issued a statement at Cleveland declaring he would be willing to box Art Lasky and Steve Hamas on the same night with his heavyweight boxing title at stake. He stipulated both bouts should be carded for 10 rounds each.

Abe Espinosa and Mike Turnesa romped home late yesterday in the Miami-Biltmore golf tourney at Miami to tie at 219 and lead the field at the 54 hole mark in the golf plum worth $12,500.

BUTLER HIGH WINS

Butler high basketball team opened the 1934-35 floor season at the Butler high floor Tuesday evening with a 24 to 18 victory over the fast Mercer high team, coached by "Bill" Crowell, former Westminster star. Coach Heinzer has a fast combination this year. Webster was the big star.

Night Baseball For Big Leagues Voted

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 13—It seems baseball can no longer stand on its own feet, and the day may come when we shall see the major leagues offering a flea circus, snake charmer, fan dancer, and a couple of crooners as added attractions to their ball games.

In voting to permit each club to play seven home games at night, the National League moguls said in effect, "we have lost faith in baseball as a daylight attraction."

Managers and players immediately went on record against the move. They believe the owners have cheapened their product, lessened its value as an entertainment and will surely endanger their hired hands. The Majors have grown down to the bushes.

However, we have by no means heard the end of the subject It probably will come up again today when the two major leagues get together in joint session.

Questions Discussed

Radio broadcasts of games, bonus contracts and barnstorming also will come up for some heated discussion. The dog question also was slated for a pow-wow but this topic seems to have been sidetracked by Judge Emil Fuchs who backed down from his proposal to run dog races with its attendant pari-mutuel betting at Braves field, Boston.

The judge's proposal threw a scare into other owners who hastily donned their best holier than thou manner, and threw up their hands in holy horror at the mere thought of gambling, although they do little or nothing about keeping the gamblers out of their parks at ball games.

Broadcasting probably will continue as usual. It surely will if the owners who now broadcast their game insist on maintaining their position. This matter came up once before. At the time one of the owners at a league meeting said to the late Bill Veeck of the Cubs: "What would you do if we adopted a resolution to bar radio?" Mr. Veeck replied: "I'd broadcast." The resolution was tabled.

New Wilmington To Play Wampum

County League Game Friday Will Find Wampum Playing At New Wilmington

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 13—Coach John Eagleson will give New Wilmington high a baptism of fire Friday night when the College Town lads meet with a reputed fast quintet from Wampum, Pa.

Wampum had little difficulty in trimming Union high some time ago, and the Blue and Gold coach is a bit uncertain as regards the outcome of Friday's tilt.

Clark, who injured his knee badly in the first fray of the season, will probably see some action in the game, with Hart, Eagleson, McKean and Borowica also likely to see action.

The local lads have done some nice work along the labor line recently when the new coach and the boys painted the basketball floor.

Union-Bessemer To Play Friday

Bessemer High Will Come To Union High Friday Night For Second Game Of League

Bessemer High school basketball team with the Mt. Jackson High game registered in the win column will travel to Union High Friday night for a battle with Coach Davey Boyd's Union High basketeers. It will be the first league game for Union High.

Coach Boyd has been using Todd and King at the forwards, with Schaas at center and Wotowitz and Rudesill at the guards. Union high will miss the services of Boron, Morrison and White from the championship team of last year.

Bessemer will bring a veteran combination to the Union High floor tomorrow night. The Bessemer preliminary game.

The world, due to the indifference of most people, is appallingly far behind in applying the facts already known for the prevention of disease.

Humberts Win Third Victory

On Wednesday night on the King Humber floor the strong Humbert First quintet rode rough shod over the Tigers Club passers in a fast contest. The final score 57-37.

In the preliminary game the Humbert Reserves nosed out the Ellwood City Mystics, 25-18.

HOW TO TREAT BANDITS
(International News Service)

DENVER—Wesley Fox, attendant at a filling station, demonstrated that a wrench can be as deadly as a gun—and saved his company $35. When two armed thugs approached him and ordered him to turn over the receipts, Fox seized the wrench, struck one of the gunmen in the face and caused the bandits to flee.

IT RAINED FISH
(International News Service)

STOCKHOLM—Fish fell from the sky during a violent storm at Restad in West Sweden. They were about an inch long. It is supposed that they were sucked up by a whirlwind somewhere and carried to Restad by the wind. Specimens have been sent to the Stockholm Natural History Museum.

Stock Market Firmer Today

Prices Change Slightly During Trading This Morning

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Strength in individual issues was outstanding in a firmer stock market today.

Gains ran to more than 2 points in Radio preferred B, speculative activity was renewed on reports the recapitalization plan had been decided and would be favorable to this issue.

A similar situation in Wilson & Co., brought renewed buying into the A shares, which rose to the best prices in several years on large-scale dealings.

Celanese and Industrial Rayon rose easily in response to the mark-up in Rayon prices. Chrysler advanced a point in the motors, while Phillips Morris hit a new high in the tobacco division.

Speculative sentiment was cheered by forecasts of decided business gains next year by outstanding individuals like Gen. Charles G. Dawes and James A. Moffett, housing administrator. The latter's disclosure that hundreds of millions would be spent this winter on plant modernization also helped.

DuPont was strong for a while, but slipped later. Other standard shares like U. S. Steel, American Can and Allied Chemical improved but gains were fractional.

Rails ran up for a while in the early dealings with advances running to more than a point in Union Pacific and Delaware & Hudson. The rise petered out quickly. The upturn in traffic offset Jesse H. Jones' statement regarding the necessity for quick reorganizations of weak roads.

While Chrysler was in demand, other motor shares showed only small price changes.

Bonds displayed a firmer tone in line with the action of stocks. Government issues were strong. Commodities were without trend.

Inspection Ties For League Lead

Trim Finishing Passers, 23-14, At Shelby Wednesday To Tie Cold Draw

MECHANICS TROUNCE BAR MILL QUINTET

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 13.—Inspection tosser deadlocked for the lead in the Shelby inter-department basketball league with the Cold-Draw Wednesday night by administering a convincing beating to the title defenders, Finishing, by a 29-14 score.

The count was 6-0 for the Inspection at the end of the initial stanza, 12-1 at half-time, 18-3 in the third quarter, and 23-14 final. Jim Fitzgerald, Burt Rossman and Capt. Dick Freidhoff led the attack for the victors. Ursu was best for the losers.

Preceding this game the Mechanical passers used a fast passing attack to trim the Bar Mill 31-10. The victors were never in danger. They took an early lead and added to it as the game progressed. Reese and Tomei were the big guns for the winners. Each accounted for 11 points. These two made baskets from all angles of the floor. Bollinger was the best bet for the Bar Mill.

It was announced today that there will be no games on Saturday night due to the annual Christmas stag party. The games scheduled for this night will be played next week.

Fire Destroys Rural School

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 13.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed Mt. Pleasant school house in Marion township on Tuesday evening The school was taught by Miss Stella Altsman of Beaver Falls.

The first was discovered about midnight and had made such headway that neither the building nor any of the supplies could be saved There are no facilities for combating fires in that rural district.

It is believed that the fire started from an overheated stove which had been covered for the night.

This school along with the other schools of the township, had just been newly painted inside and out last week under an RWD project. The loss was estimated at several hundred dollars.

The pupils, numbering twenty, who attended this school, will likely be transferred to another nearby school, which has a small enrollment.

Margiotti Will Offer Defense

Brokerage House Case Against Margiotti Is Drawing To Close

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13.—Technical details involved in the handling of stock transactions were unfolded in common pleas court here today, as the fourth day of the case of Goodbody & Company, New York brokerage house, against Charles J. Margiotti, state attorney general designate, drew to a close.

The New York firm brought the action against the Pittsburgh and Punxsutawney lawyer to collect the sum of $32,601, which it claims is owing as a result of Margiotti's stock transactions with the company.

Harold Goodbody, a former member of the brokerage firm, continued on the witness stand today, explaining operations of his firm on a general basis, but bringing out particularly transactions in which, through the firm's record books, he showed Margiotti's participation.

All of the testimony related to the company's record of sales of July 7, 1931. Two of the Margiotti transactions were shown as being made on that date.

Will Take Stand

These two, involving purchases of International Telephone and Telegraph and American Foreign Power issues, are admitted by the defendants. Purchase of the former securities were made, according to the records, at a price of $18,450, while the cost of the latter was placed at $19,387.50.

A multitude of objections to the introduction of evidence slowed the trial, being conducted before visiting Judge Alfred E. Swoyer, of Wayne county. Upon completion of the New York firm's case, Margiotti will take the stand in his own defense.

On Trial for Murder

Mrs. Anna Kane of Boston, is New England's most beautiful murder charge defendant in many years. She is charged with slaying her husband over another woman. Her plea is not guilty.

Committee To Handle Banking Laws Is Planned

Administration Maps Out Plans For Joint Congressional Committee

WOULD STUDY ALL PROPOSALS

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Constituting a striking departure from legislative custom, a plan has been devised in high administration circles for creation of a joint congressional committee to handle banking and currency legislation in the 74th congress.

The plan, it was disclosed today, is already completed, and its future depends upon the reception given it by administration leaders in both bodies of congress.

The proposal is believed to be designed to check inflation and extreme banking reform in the forthcoming session.

The joint committee would be charged with the duty of making a comprehensive survey of all banking reform and inflation proposals. Hearings would be held and experts would be summoned.

Sponsors of the plan expect strong inflation sentiment in the coming congress. Senator Thomas (D) of Oklahoma already has made progress and now has the backing of the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, of Detroit, the "Radio Priest," in currency reform.

The plan would be in accord with the administration program of sound reform, while avoiding legislation which might destroy confidence and thus prevent the hoped-for revival of business.

A limited banking program is now being prepared by the administration. Among the controversial issues to be considered is the future of the deposit insurance corporation.

The administration is expected to ask that the present $5,000 maximum on deposit insurance either be made permanent or continued as a temporary measure. Unless some action is taken, the full deposit insurance law will become effective in 1936. Under the permanent program 100 per cent insurance is provided up to $10,000 of deposits and partial insurance above that figure.

Highway Patrol Aid City Police

Agree To Help Eliminate "One-Eye" Drivers From Local Streets

RESULT OF POW-WOW WITH POLICE CHIEF

State highway patrolmen and Chief of Police John F. Haven held a conference Wednesday afternoon in the office of the latter and the patrolmen agreed to co-operate with city police in an effort to eliminate the "one-eye" auto drivers from New Castle streets.

According to the state highway patrolmen's statement, issued following the conference, they intend to arrest all operators of cars which have only one headlight illuminated at night.

It is the first time that the state highwawy patrol has actually entered a campaign within the city, heretofore having kept hands off out of courtesy to the city police.

But now that the problem of "one-eye" drivers has become such a menace, coupled to the desire of the chief of police that the highway patrol aid the city, the campaign is on in full sway.

Under the law the driver of an automobile is responsible for having two illuminated headlights, properly lighted rear light and drivers failure to obey the law will bring a fine of $10 and costs.

Syria Santa To Visit Children

C. Ed. Brown Is Named On Committee To Represent New Castle District

ORPHANS WILL BE REMEMBERED

C. Ed Brown of the Hamilton apartments has again been named a member of the Syria Santa committee appointed by Illustrious Potentate David Timothy of Syria Temple, A. A. O. N. M. A., of Pittsburgh, to bring joy and Christmas cheer to thousands of orphan boys and girls throughout western Pennsylvania.

The Syria Santa was first heard of in Syria Temple circles back in 1919, when Joseph N. Mackrell, now register of wills for Allegheny county, was Illustrious Potentate. The movement had a comparatively humble beginning, but it has grown thru the years until now it reaches the hearts of more than 5,000 orphan boys and girls in 64 homes and institutions throughout the western Pennsylvania district annually.

Under the arrangement, every boy and girl gets what he most wants. His wishes are ascertained in advance through a questionnaire. Then the gifts are purchased by the committee, of which Uriah W. Tinker is chairman, and Albert C. Darragh, secretary, this year.

The gifts are wrapped in Christmas trimmings, addressed to each child, and delivered to him, either on Christmas eve, or morning, by one of the Shriners, dressed as Santa Claus. If the children are sick, the gifts are taken to their room, when possible, by Santa Claus himself.

The Syria Santa is financed from voluntary contributions by the Shriners only, and since the start of the movement more than $100,000 has been spent in this worthy cause.

Community Tree For College Town

Tree To Be Trimmed And Lighted On Public Square For Holidays

NEW WILMINGTON, Dec. 13.—The old Yuletide spirit is in the air, and soon William Anderson and his force will catch that contagious spirit and will light up the little pine trees on the community diamond.

This is an annual event in the community and has always been a successful move.

Various villagers are contemplating lighting up the trees on their premises in due time, and it is undoubtedly true that our community is one of the most beautiful, at least with regard to Christmas lighting effects as any the writer has seen.

SECURE DEER

Since the first three days of the current deer season, not one buck has been reported as killed by any of the various local nimrods. Ed Hoover, Leo Plotts, Paul Zook, Pearson Cox and a few others are the only fortunate huntsmen to down their buck this year, although many of the more determined nimrods are saving a few more days' vacation for a later date when they will endeavor to attain that coveted list of successful deer slayers.

A. A. U. W. MEETING

Miss Elizabeth Stewart of West Neshannock will be in the role of hostess to members of the A. A. U. W. at her home this evening when the regular Christmas party will be held.

QUEEN ESTHER CIRCLE

Mrs. W. V. Mitchell of West Neshannock avenue, patroness of the organization, will fete the members of the Queen Esther Circle of the Methodist church at her home tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

SLEDRIDING

The winter season is here and the kiddies have taken out their inevitable sleds for the winter sport. Neshannock hill still remains the favorite spot for the sledders, and the lovers of the time honored sport can be seen day and night patrolling that section of the community.

It has been estimated that 29,000,000 tons of steel rust away annually and in less than a century and a half, the world's supply of iron deposits will be used up.

Revivals Will Close Friday

Three Week's Of Revival Services Will Be Brought To Close On Lyndal Street

Rev. Jesse Whitecotton, of Marion, Indiana, guest revivalist at the Wesleyan Methodist church on Lyndal street, delivered a sermon Wednesday night, before an assembly of religious worshipper, pertaining to Holy Ghost reality and indispensability, as witnessed in the Gospel archtype of Lord Christ Jesus.

Another revival service will be conducted at 7:30 o'clock this evening and the three weeks of services will be brought to a conclusion on Friday evening.
